THIS IS KANSAS FOOTBALL

THIS IS KANSAS FOOTBALL

GAMEDAY

Fall Saturdays at the University of Kansas have become events, with the celebration starting well before kickoff. From tailgating before the game, to the spectacular Marching Jayhawks band, the atmosphere at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium for each home contest makes Lawrence a popular location for college football fans. Under fourth-year head coach David Beaty, the Jayhawks will host six fun-filled home games in 2018.

David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium has been the home of the Jayhawks since 1921.

KIVISTO FIELD

Kivisto Field at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium provides one of college football's most tradition-filled and picturesque settings.

KANSAS FOOTBALL INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

Construction on the Kansas Football Indoor Practice Facility began in April of 2018 and is expected to be completed in December. The new state-of-the-art indoor facility will be immediately adjacent to the Anderson Family Football Complex, centered on David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium's 50-yard line for ease of access by the team and reduce the need for extended travel time to satellite training centers.

PRACTICE FACILITY FEATURES

- Approximately 90,000 square feet; full 120-yard field including end zones with additional 20 feet of runoff around entire playing surface
- State-of-the-art indoor practice facility with air conditioning
- Natural-filtered light along all facades to recreate game day experience
- Ancillary building attached and equipped to support additional functions in space
- On-site satellite sports medicine facilities with direct access to practice field
- Lobby with direct visual and physical access to the practice field for recruitment and other functions
- Football video editing suite with direct visual and physical access to practice field
- State-of-the-art audio system

ANDERSON FAMILY FOOTBALL COMPLEX

The Anderson Family Football Complex continually undergoes updates – most recently in the fall of 2017 with the addition of a nutrition center – to remain one of the finest facilities in the nation.

ATHLETIC GEAR

Kansas Athletics is outfitted with adidas gear — one of the largest such partnerships in college athletics. All KU football players are provided everything they need to compete at the highest level.

UNIFORM COMBINATIONS

Being the only Big 12 football team outfitted by adidas, paired with a distinctive Crimson and Blue color scheme, Kansas has some of the most unique uniforms in the conference and the nation. The Jayhawks sport one of their 36 uniform combinations each week and also wear an alternate uniform one game each year.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

During the 2017 season, every Kansas game was broadcasted by either the ESPN family of networks, FOX family of networks or the Jayhawk IMG Television Network. Each season all home games involving Big 12 teams will be televised on ABC, ESPN, FOX, FOX Sports 1, FOX Sports Network regional, FOX College Sports or an institutional network. Each institution is allowed to televise one game on a school network.

Kansas football games can be found on a variety of channels throughout the season. All 12 games were televised in 2017, including on ESPN, ESPNU, FOX and Fox Sports 1.

Subscribers can catch breaking team news, view updated statistics, access video-on-demand, watch live video streams as well access pregame previews and read game recaps.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Kansas Athletics' communications department is one of a handful in the country to house a "Creative Team" dedicated to promoting student-athletes on the web and social media. Employing modern digital-communication techniques and platforms, the Creative Team connects Jayhawk fans directly to the sports and athletes they love.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Kansas sports medicine staff and physicians are constantly on the cutting edge of injury prevention and rehabilitation. Using such state-of-the-art equipment as aquatic rehabilitation pools and monitored rehab systems, as well as a multitude of hands-on techniques, the sports medicine staff at Kansas is able to implement programs for its athletes which have resulted in significantly faster and safer return to competition.

1. OWEN STANLEY

Joined the KU sports medicine staff in May of 2018 as the head football athletic trainer after spending the previous three seasons at Texas A&M in the same role. Prior to working with the Aggies, Stanley worked at South Dakota State and with the Kansas City Chiefs.

2. SHAWN LOVE

Came to Kansas from Duke where he served four years as the athletic trainer for the Blue Devils' baseball team. Prior to his time at Duke, Love worked as an athletic training intern with the NFL's New England Patriots.

3. ANDREW VEREEN

Vereen is in his third year with Kansas football, after spending 2016 as a Certified Athletic Training Intern before being promoted to Assistant Athletic Trainer in 2017. Prior to KU, Vereen was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Northern Iowa where he worked with the football program.

4. DR. LARRY MAGEE

Has worked since 1988 as a team physician at Kansas, where he currently holds the title of Head Team Physician. In his role, Magee supervises the departments of Sports Medicine, Strength and Conditioning and Sports Nutrition.

5. DR. JEFF RANDALL

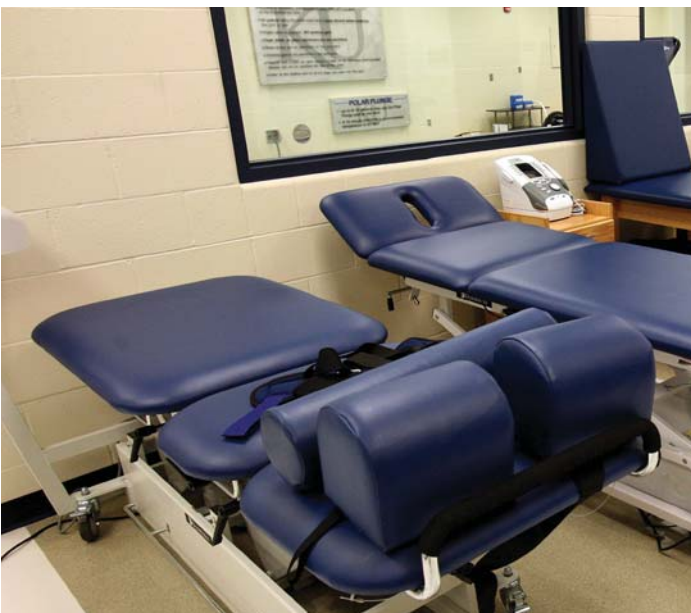

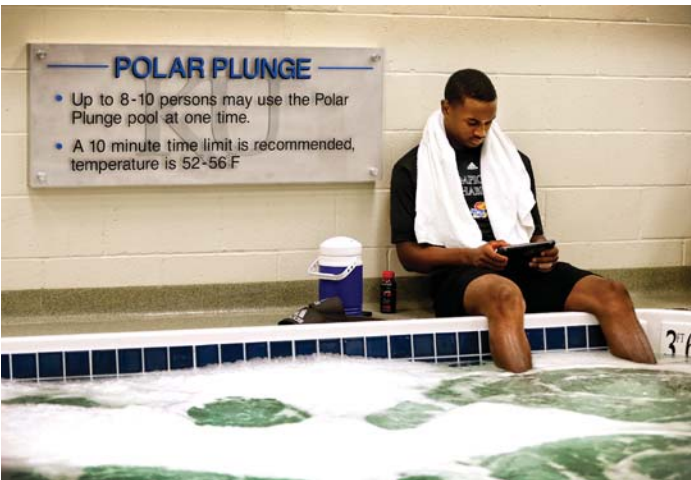

Graduated with honors with a BA in Chemistry in 1985 from the University of Kansas and graduated first in his class from KU Med in 1990. Randall completed his Residency at the University of Florida in Orthopaedic Surgery and Fellowship in Sports Medicine from the University of Oklahoma also in Orthopaedic Surgery.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

ACADEMICS

The Student-Athlete Support Services staff focuses all collective resources in support of the academic, personal and interpersonal development of each individual it serves. As part of its commitment to the academic success of its athletes, Kansas Athletics completed a new academic complex in the summer of 2009. The facility features individual study rooms, a computer lab and offices for all Student-Athlete Support Services personnel.

KANSAS ATHLETICS TUTORING PROGRAM

- Tutoring is available to any student-athlete who needs academic assistance.
- Approximately 100 tutors work for Kansas Athletics, many of whom are instructors or teaching assistants at KU or retired educators. Some tutors are undergraduate students who have excelled in their respective subject areas.
- Kansas Athletics offers both individualized and small study group tutoring, based entirely upon the learning needs of each student-athlete.
- More than 1,500 tutoring sessions are scheduled each week.
- More than 300 student-athletes work with tutors each semester.

HOURS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE COMPLETED BY
KU STUDENT-ATHLETES
IN THE PAST YEAR

1. FRESHMAN LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

To develop committed leaders who represent the University of Kansas and its intercollegiate athletic programs with pride, integrity and intense competitive spirit.

2. EMERGENT LEADER RETREATS

Student-athletes, selected by their coaches, attend an overnight Jayhawk Leadership Retreat twice a year. They participate in activities, exercises and discussions designed to enhance leadership skills from a strengths-based perspective.

3. CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A career development progression; beginning with a career interest inventory, resume review, career coaching, mock interviews, utilizing KU Career Connections and Kansas Athletics' Career Fair.

4. STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

SAAC's mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience, protect student-athlete welfare and promote a positive student-athlete image. Around 50 student-athletes serve as SAAC members

5. COMMUNITY SERVICE

Developing leaders off the field by fostering an environment in which the student-athletes understand and value the benefits of giving back to their community.

6. JAYHAWKS AFTER COLLEGE

Kansas Athletics and K Club have teamed up to assist student-athletes in connecting with former student-athletes to aid in the transition after college.

PHOG ALLEN

1. THE NICKNAME: JAYHAWK

The University of Kansas is the home of the Jayhawk, a mythical bird with a fascinating history. Its origin is rooted in the historic struggles of Kansas settlers. The term "Jayhawk" was probably coined about 1848. Accounts of its use appeared from Illinois to Texas. The name combines two birds - the blue jay, a noisy, quarrelsome thing known to rob other nests, and the sparrow hawk, a stealthy hunter.

2. THE ALMA MATER

In 1891, professor George Barlow Penny searched for a school song for the Glee and Mandolin Club to sing on its tour through Kansas to Denver and back. No one responded with an original song in answer to his appeals. Just before departure, he thought of the Cornell song "Far Above Cayuga's Waters." Hastily changing a few words, he gave it to the glee club men to sing on the trip. He did not expect the song to be used after their return, but "Crimson and the Blue" still goes on. The music is not Cornell's but an old English folk tune, "Annie Lisle."

3. CAMPANILE HILL

Campanile Hill forms the picturesque backdrop for David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium. On a sunny fall Saturday, the "Hill" is transformed into a congregating place for watching Jayhawk football, sunning and barbequing. Potter Lake, just to the southwest of David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium and at the bottom of Campanile Hill, adds to the beauty of the Kansas campus.

4. THE K RING

The K Ring symbolizes a uniquely shared experience between generations of varsity letterwinners at the University of Kansas. As a Jayhawk you are expected to uphold tradition and retain the characteristics of a champion while continuing to create your own legacy.

5. WAVING THE WHEAT

Since the early days of KU sports, it has been a ritual of Jayhawk fans to "wave the wheat" following every Kansas scoring drive in football. The tradition also extends to Allen Fieldhouse where fans "wave the wheat" when an opponent fouls out and at the conclusion of every Jayhawk victory. The ritual consists of fans waving their arms in the air, an activity which, when done by a large crowd, resembles a breezy Kansas wheat field.

6. THE ROCK CHALK CHANT

The Rock Chalk Chant has been the battle cry of KU fans for more than 80 years. This strange, traditional chant, which is among the most famous of all college cheers, was started by E.H.S. Bailey, a professor of chemistry. On May 21, 1886, Bailey submitted the cheer to his club.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

The University of Kansas is a premier research institution with a mission to educate leaders, build healthy communities and make discoveries that change the world. The university has more than 40 nationally ranked academic programs and is home to major centers overseeing research in life span issues, the humanities, the environment, biodiversity, and polar ice sheets. KU also has nationally designated cancer and Alzheimer's centers and the state's only schools of medicine and pharmacy, which are vital to training healthcare providers for the state's underserved communities. In addition to making discoveries that change the world, KU research grows the Kansas economy. Last year, KU conducted $230 million in externally funded research, which is new money that flows into Kansas as a result of our research. There more than 38 active startup companies based on KU technologies, and nearly a dozen out-of-state companies have relocated to Kansas to partner with KU researchers since 2010.

David Beaty, who is now in his fourth season as the head coach at the University of Kansas, took the reins of the KU football program Dec. 5, 2014, with more than 20 years of coaching experience, including two previous stints as an assistant coach with the Jayhawks.

In 2017, Beaty and his staff produced eight All-Big 12 players, including first-team defensive tackle Daniel Wise. Additionally, linebacker Joe Dineen Jr., became Kansas' first Sports Illustrated Second Team All-American since Aqib Talib in 2007. Dineen led the nation in solo tackles with 7.8 per contest. He set a new KU single-season record with 25.0 tackles-for-loss, which ranked third in the NCAA and tops in the Big 12. His 137 total tackles also ranked third nationally and led the conference.

The 2017 Kansas offense featured wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., who turned in the second-best single-game receiving performance in KU history and the seventh-best in the NCAA in 2017 with his nine-catch, 233-yard game against K-State. Running back Khalil Herbert also exploded for a 291-yard rushing game against West Virginia--the third-best single-game rushing performance in KU history and third-best in the NCAA in 2017.

In his second season at the helm Beaty engineered a late-November overtime victory over Texas -- the program's first win against the Longhorns since 1938. Following the season, league coaches voted 11 Jayhawks to an All-Big 12 Conference team, the most since 2007 when 14 players were honored from the record-breaking 12-1 Orange Bowl champions. Senior safety Fish Smithson and sophomore defensive end Dorance Armstrong Jr., received First Team honors, while Armstrong became Kansas' only unanimous All-Big 12 First Team selection since the league's inception in 1996.

A native of Garland, Texas, Beaty came back to KU after spending the three previous seasons as the Texas A&M wide receivers coach, where he also coordinated all the recruiting efforts during the 2013-14 seasons.

Under Beaty's tutelage, the Aggies' wide receivers were a record-setting group. With first-team All-American Mike Evans leading the way in 2013, the Aggies set team records for receiving yards, receiving touchdowns and completion percentage. Evans set the A&M record with 1,394 receiving yards and matched the receiving touchdowns record with 12. He also shattered and re-broke the single-game receiving record with 279 yards vs. Alabama and 287 yards against Auburn. Evans went on to become the Aggies' first wide receiver to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Texas A&M was the only team in the nation with four 50-catch, 600-yard receivers in 2013.

THE BEATY FAMILY: RAYNEE, ALEXA, DAVID AND AVERIE.

In 2012, the Aggies had six wideouts who produced 19 or more catches, including more than 70 each by senior Ryan Swope and Evans.

Beaty went to Texas A&M after serving as offensive coordinator at both Kansas and Rice.

Beaty spent the 2010 season as the offensive coordinator at Rice, where he helped the team average 28.7 points and 375.3 yards per game. Prior to his second stint at Rice, Beaty was the wide receivers coach at Kansas during the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

During his first tour at KU, Beaty helped receivers Kerry Meier and Dezmon Briscoe develop into NFL-caliber players. Meier, who was taken in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft, received All-Big 12 accolades in 2008 and 2009, while Briscoe, a sixth-round selection in the 2010 NFL Draft, was an All-American and All-Big 12 First Team pick in 2009. In 2008, five different KU players produced a total of 15 100-yard receiving games. Among the school records set by KU wide receivers in 2008 were season receptions, game receptions, season yards, game yards, and season touchdowns.

Beaty spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons as the wide receivers coach at Rice. In 2006 he served as passing game coordinator as the team made its first bowl game in 45 years (the New Orleans Bowl). He had two players - Jarett Dillard and James Casey - drafted by NFL teams following the 2007 season. Dillard ranked in the top-25 nationally in both receptions and yards in 2007, and he led the nation in touchdown receptions (21) in 2006.

Beaty is a 1994 graduate of Lindenwood (St. Charles, Mo.) College, where he played football and served as a team captain from 1992-93. He was a four-year starter at wide receiver and led the team in receptions for three-straight seasons. He played both football and soccer at Garland (Texas) High School where he graduated in 1989.

Beaty and his wife, Raynee, have two daughters, Averie and Alexa.

Heading into his 20th year on the Kansas coaching staff and 23rd year overall with the program, Clint Bowen serves as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator on David Beaty's staff. Bowen, who has been coaching the Jayhawk safeties, will now coach the KU cornerbacks in 2018.

Bowen's 2017 defense featured four All-Big 12 players, including safety Bryce Torneden, who earned honorable mention honors from the conference coaches in his first season as a starter.

Bowen coached a pair of hard-hitting safeties for KU in 2016. Led by veteran Fish Smithson with 93 tackles and freshman Mike Lee with 77 stops--the Jayhawk backfield was in good hands. Smithson went on to earn All-Big 12 First Team honors on his way to signing a free agent contract with the Washington Redskins. Lee found his name on Athlon Sports' Freshman All-America Team, while he also picked up All-Big 12 honorable mention honors from the league coaches.

In 2015, Bowen guided safety Smithson to a FBS-leading 87 solo tackles. Smithson came within three tackles of tying Bowen's top-three mark in KU history for tackles in a season by a defensive back and became the first DB to lead the team in tackles since Darrell Stuckey in 2009. Smithson's 111 tackles were the most by a DB since 1998.

Bowen was tabbed as the Jayhawks' interim head coach on Sept. 28, 2014, posting a 1-7 mark while guiding KU through the remainder of the 2014 campaign. He had previously served as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2012, before moving over to coaching the linebackers in January of 2013, then adding the title of defensive coordinator in December of 2013.

In addition to his interim head coach duties, Bowen still tutored the Jayhawk linebackers, specifically Ben Heeney, who was a unanimous All-Big 12 First Team selection in 2014 and a fifth-round pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Bowen completed a one-year stint as defensive coordinator and safeties coach for North Texas in 2011, having joined the Mean Green after spending the 2010 season at Western Kentucky, where he held the defensive coordinator position.

The Lawrence native and 1995 KU grad returned to his roots in 2012, as he accumulated 13 years of coaching experience with the Jayhawks prior to his latest return to Lawrence. He began his Kansas coaching career by working as a defensive graduate assistant coach for KU in 1996. He then worked one season as a graduate assistant at Minnesota before returning to Kansas as a graduate assistant in 1998-99 and then serving as assistant director of football operations during the 2000 season.

Bowen took over the role of special teams coordinator in 2001. In addition to manning the special teams, Bowen also coached tight ends (2001), running backs (2002) and safeties (2003-05) during that time span.

In 2006 Bowen was promoted to co-defensive coordinator. Following the 2007 season he was elevated to defensive coordinator, helping guide the Jayhawks to a victory at the Insight Bowl in 2008.

Bowen and his wife, Kristie, have two sons, Baylor and Banks. Kristie Bowen was the 2014 Mrs. Kansas and was named Miss Kansas in 2001.

"I am thrilled to be adding someone of the caliber of Doug Meacham to our staff. Doug is someone I have admired for quite some time for his creativity on the offensive side of the ball. I have had to go up against him several times and it was always a huge challenge because of his ability to direct an offense. I am incredibly thankful to have him on our staff moving forward."

Veteran offensive coordinator, Doug Meacham, is in his second season leading the Kansas offense. In addition to calling the Jayhawk offense, Meacham will coach the KU quarterbacks.

In his first season at KU, Meacham's offense had three players garner All-Big 12 honors in tight end Ben Johnson, wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., and offensive lineman Hakeem Adeniji. Sims turned in the second-best single-game receiving performance in Kansas history and the seventh-best in the NCAA in 2017 with his nine-catch, 233-yard game against K-State. Running back Khalil Herbert also exploded for a 291-yard rushing game against West Virginia--the third-best single-game rushing performance in KU history and third-best in the NCAA in 2017.

Meacham arrived in Lawrence after spending the previous three seasons at TCU where he served as the co-offensive coordinator while mentoring the Horned Frog inside receivers.

In each of his three seasons, the Horned Frogs' offensive attack ranked among the nation's best. Despite replacing a Heisman candidate in quarterback Trevone Boykin in 2016, the TCU offense averaged 31 points per game while ranking 29th nationally in total offense with 463.2 yards per game.

In 2015, for the second-straight year, TCU set single-season school records in several major statistical categories. Additionally, the Horned Frogs ranked third nationally in total offense (562.8 yards per game) and seventh in scoring (42.1 points per game).

In his first season at TCU, 2014, Meacham helped the Horned Frogs become the nation's most improved offense in total yards (+188.2 ypg) and scoring (+21.4 ppg). TCU's 21.4 points per game improvement broke the Big 12 record of 19.1 set by Oklahoma in 1999 (35.8; 16.7, 1998) and was the largest increase by any team since Northwestern improved 24 points between 1999-2000.

The 2014 Horned Frogs ranked second in the nation in scoring (46.5 ppg) and tied for fifth in total offense (533.0 ypg). TCU set 26 school records for offense, winning both its first Big 12 championship and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Meacham was a 2014 finalist for the Broyles Award, recognizing the nation's top assistant coach.

Meacham went to the Horned Frogs after serving as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Houston for the 2013 season.

Kansas marks the sixth school at which Meacham has been an offensive coordinator. In addition to his roles at TCU and Houston, Meacham coordinated offenses at Samford (2002-04), Henderson State (1999-2000), Jacksonville State (1997-98) and Georgia Military (1994-96).

Prior to Houston, Meacham spent eight seasons (2005-12) as the tight ends/inside receivers coach at Oklahoma State. He was the Cowboys' passing game coordinator in the 2008-09 campaigns. Meacham was part of two of the most successful eras in Oklahoma State football history, first as a student-athlete (1984-87) and then during his tenure as an assistant coach.

The Cowboys ranked in the top-10 nationally in offense and averaged at least 40 points in five of Meacham's last six seasons in Stillwater. Oklahoma State was in the top five in the country in total offense in the 2010-12 campaigns, when it scored more than 50 points 15 times, broke the 60-point mark in seven contests, 70 points twice and the 80-point plateau once.

Meacham coached 2012 All-Big 12 First Team receiver Josh Stewart into one of the best sophomore seasons in OSU history with 101 catches for 1,210 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart's 101 receptions were the fourth-most in school history and his 1,210 receiving yards trailed only Justin Blackmon and Dez Bryant on the all-time OSU list for sophomore wideouts.

Inside receiver Josh Cooper and tight end Brandon Pettigrew were among other OSU standouts coached directly by Meacham.

Meacham was instrumental in establishing a record-setting offense at Samford. He directed an attack in 2004 that set several school records, including passing yards (2,986), pass completions (256) and completion percentage (59.8).

Prior to Samford, Meacham worked the same kind of magic at Henderson State, where he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During the 2000 season, Meacham coached an offense that broke two Division II national passing and receiving records, four Gulf South Conference marks and nine school passing and receiving records.

Meacham's history of record-breaking offenses, however, began even before his stint at Henderson. Upon joining the staff at Jacksonville State in 1997, the Gamecocks went 7-4 and recorded the biggest turnaround in Division I-AA. During his tenure at Jacksonville State, Meacham's offensive unit broke 21 school passing and receiving records.

Meacham also spent three years as the offensive coordinator at Georgia Military College. He first joined the GMC staff in 1991 and served as offensive line and tight ends coach. In 1994, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and helped guide the school to an impressive 35-8 record during his tenure.

During his playing days at Oklahoma State, Meacham was on teams that participated in four bowl games (1983 Bluebonnet, 1984 Gator, 1985 Gator and 1987 Sun). He was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Cowboys and had a string of 35-consecutive starts. During his Oklahoma State playing career, the Cowboys put together an overall record of 34-9.

Meacham earned All-Big Eight honors and was an honorable mention All-American as a senior. He was a captain of the 1987 Sun Bowl team that defeated West Virginia. Meacham blocked for both 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders and two-time Big Eight Player of the Year Thurman Thomas.

In high school, Meacham was a three-year starter and two-time all-district selection in football at Arlington's Sam Houston High School.

Meacham is married to the former Kendall Deas and they have three children: Peyton, Cole and Brooks.

Kenny Perry is in his fourth season on the Kansas staff, serving as the recruiting coordinator and special teams coordinator in 2018. Perry previously coached the Jayhawk cornerbacks during his first three years at KU.

The 2018 Kansas recruiting class is currently ranked 56th in the national rankings by Rivals.com and includes the Jayhawks' first Top-100 signee in cornerback Corione Harris. Harris, a four-star player according to all of the major recruiting services, is the 97th-ranked player in the class of 2018.

During his first two seasons at Kansas, Perry mentored cornerback Brandon Stewart, who was picked up by the Los Angeles Chargers as a free agent following the 2017 NFL Draft.

Perry came to KU after spending the previous two years at TCU, including the 2014 campaign as the cornerbacks coach.

In 2014, Perry coached the Horned Frogs' Kevin White to All-Big 12 Second Team honors with Ranthony Texada named a second-team Freshman All-American. He helped lead TCU to 12-1 mark, a share of the Big 12 title and a win in the Peach Bowl.

Perry first joined the TCU football staff in March 2013 as its director of high school relations and recruiting.

Prior to his time at TCU, Perry served seven seasons (2006-12) as head football coach at Bowie High School in Arlington, Texas. Before his time at Bowie, Perry was also head coach at Haltom High School (2004-05) and Arlington Sam Houston (2000-03).

A three-time District Coach of the Year, Perry was the 2007 Dallas Morning News Coach of the Year. He was also a six-time selection as the Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week. In 2010, Perry was selected to the Board of Directors for the Texas High School Coaches Association. He has also been the director of the North Texas High School Football Association.

A 1993 graduate of the University of Houston, Perry was a four-year letterman (1988-91) as a defensive back for the Cougars. Perry was a cornerback his freshman and sophomore seasons before being moved to safety his final two years. He also served as a graduate assistant for Houston from 1992-94, working with the special teams and defensive backs.

Perry has a daughter, Alexa, and a son, Keaton. Keaton earned three letters playing quarterback and wide receiver at KU on his way to graduating in May 2018, with a bachelor's degree in business finance.

DAVID BEATY ON PERRY

"Coach Perry is a huge key for us not only from a coaching perspective, but from a recruiting perspective as well. He is a well-respected former Texas high school football coach who was instrumental in the development of the North Texas High School Coaches Association."

Tony Hull is in his third season on Kansas head coach David Beaty's staff, serving as running backs coach. He added the title of associate head coach in February, 2017.

Under Hull's guidance, running back Khalil Herbert exploded for a 291-yard rushing game against West Virginia--the third-best single-game rushing performance in KU history and third-best in the NCAA in 2017.

Hull joined the Jayhawk staff from the Louisiana high school ranks, where he most recently served as the head coach and offensive coordinator of Warren Easton High School in New Orleans. During his nine seasons as the head coach of the Eagles, Hull helped lead a stagnant program into a contender.

A New Orleans native, Hull arrived at Warren Easton in 2007, the school's first season playing football following Hurricane Katrina. He guided the Eagles to the playoffs in seven of his nine seasons at the helm of the program, including a state championship game appearance in 2014 and a state semifinals showing in 2015.

Hull developed the Eagles' players on the field as he mentored 45 players who went on to earn Division

I football scholarships. Six of those players earned a nod in ESPN's top-300 list, while one of his athletes was named the 2014 Gatorade Player of the Year and Mr. Louisiana Football.

Hull, who taught math and physical education, was an important member of the Eagles' faculty as he saw his WEHS football players enjoy a 100 percent graduation rate. Additionally, he implemented a character development sector that saw his players assisting inner city youth with off-the-field development.

Prior to his time at Warren Easton, Hull spent the 2005 season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Sarah T. Reed High School in New Orleans. He served in the same capacity at Mandeville High School in Mandeville, Louisiana, in 2006.

Hull was a two-year starter on the offensive line at UL Lafayette, where he earned a bachelor's degree in industrial technology in 2004. Following graduation, Hull spent four years working in the engineering field, including three years at NASA.

Hull married the former Candice Cobette in July 2017. He has three daughters: Jordan, Jaleh and Journee.

DAVID BEATY ON HULL

"Not only is Tony well-respected as a coach throughout the state of Louisiana, but collegiate coaches around the nation also have a huge amount of appreciation for the work he has done. The production of his teams and players speaks for itself and we are looking forward to him bringing that same work ethic to our staff and players."

Johnson previously worked under Beaty at Texas A&M, serving as an offensive graduate assistant for the Aggies in 2013, while Beaty was the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator.

A Houston alum, Johnson worked at his alma mater in 2012 in an offensive quality control position. In that role, he assisted all offensive coaches with administrative duties.

Johnson was a four-year letterwinner at UH from 2008 to 2011. As a senior, he helped lead the Cougars to a record-setting 13-1 overall mark and a dominating win against No. 23 Penn State during the TicketCity Bowl.

The Richardson, Texas, native finished second on the team with 1,229 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns on 87 receptions on the way to earning All-Conference USA First-Team accolades.

Johnson was a versatile student-athlete during his collegiate playing days with the Cougars, competing on special teams and as a running back at various times. During his career, he competed in three bowl games and two Conference USA Championship games. Off the field, Johnson was a member of Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and was selected to participate in and graduated from UH's Athletics Leadership Academy. He was awarded the UH Committed Cougar Award twice.

Johnson graduated from Houston in December of 2011 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology-sports administration. He and his wife, Aisha, reside in Lawrence. The couple is expecting their first child in the fall of 2018.

DAVID BEATY ON JOHNSON

"Justin is known around our building as 'Juice'—because energy is something he definitely brings to the table. He is well-versed in not only how we want to run our program, but also the nuances to how we want to run our offense. He has worked hard during his time at KU to establish himself as a mentor with our players and that will help him greatly as he moves into his new role."

BILL MILLER

POSITION	Linebackers
ALMA MATER	UT-Arlington, 1978
HOMETOWN	Hutchinson, Kan.
WIFE	Lisa
CHILDREN	Cole & Jackson

Bill Miller, who is in his second stint on the Kansas coaching staff, adds 40 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Jayhawk staff. The well-respected Miller is responsible for coaching the KU linebackers.

Throughout his career, Miller has worked with some of the most successful and innovative collegiate coaches, including Nick Saban (Michigan State), Jimmy Johnson (Oklahoma State), Butch Davis (Miami) and most recently Jimbo Fisher (Florida State). He was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award, which is presented annually to college football's Assistant Coach of the Year, while at Michigan State (2000) and Florida (2003). Miller has been on staff with six teams that have won conference championships and has coached in 14 bowl games.

DAVID BEATY ON MILLER

"Bill Miller is as highly regarded as they come in the coaching community. The amount of respect he commands from his players and the coaches he works alongside is tremendous. He is a leader in our field when it comes to developing players, and I am ecstatic to have him in our program."

Miller made his way back to KU after spending the previous four years at Florida State coaching linebackers. Under Miller's guidance, Florida State's linebackers were the leaders of the FSU defense and helped propel the Seminoles to three "New Year's Six" bowl games.

In 2016, after losing leaders Reggie Northrup and Terrance Smith in the linebacker corps, Miller's group barely missed a beat. Florida State finished 22nd in total defense (349.1), 17th in third down percentage (.339) and 22nd in tackles-for-loss per game (7.3) in the country.

Miller showed his ability to develop talent, as first-year starter Matthew Thomas led the team in tackles (77), including a standout game against No. 6 Michigan in the Orange Bowl, where Thomas set a career high in tackles (15) and TFL (3.5), leading Thomas to ESPN's All Bowl-Team.

In 2015, senior linebackers Northrup and Smith both captured all-conference honors for the second-straight year to lead an FSU defense that ranked ninth in the country in scoring defense (17.8) and 19th in total defense (336.9). Northrup rebounded from an ACL injury to lead FSU in tackles (94) for a second-straight year en route to All-ACC Second Team honors.

In 2014, Smith (87 tackles) grabbed All-ACC second team honors and Northrup (122 stops) collected All-ACC Third Team accolades to lead the Seminoles to an ACC Championship and a berth in the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal. Northrup's tackle total was the most by a Seminole since 2002.

Before his time in Tallahassee, Miller was at Minnesota for three years where he helped shape a defense that in 2013 allowed only 289 points, which was the first time that the Gophers allowed less than 300 points since 2004.

Miller had to replace two starters at linebacker in 2013 and did an admirable job with his corps as Damien Wilson was second on the team with 78 tackles. Miller's linebackers also made big plays in 2013, as Aaron Hill scored two touchdowns and James Manuel scored one.

Prior to joining the Gophers, Miller coached the linebackers and served as the co-defensive coordinator during his first go-round at KU in 2009.

Miller coached the linebackers at Louisville in 2008 and had been promoted to defensive coordinator before accepting the position at Kansas. Miller was the defensive coordinator at Western Michigan in 2007.

He was the defensive coordinator at Arizona State from 2005-06 on Dirk Koetter's staff and quickly turned around the Sun Devil defense. In one year, he took the Arizona State defense from last in the Pac-10 to second (behind USC) in total defense.

In 2003-04, Miller was the associate head coach and linebackers coach at Florida. He spent 1999-2002 at Michigan State as the Spartans' defensive coordinator on Saban's staff. While in East Lansing, Miller's defense finished first in the Big Ten in total defense and the Spartans beat Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl.

From 1995-98, he ran the defense for Miami (Fla.) and won two Big East championships as a member of Butch Davis' staff. From 1989-94, Miller was the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State.

Miller's first experience at Minnesota was from 1986-88, when he served as the Gophers' defensive backs coach on John Gutekunst's staff. He helped lead Minnesota to a 20-17 win at Michigan as the Gophers handed the previously unbeaten and second-ranked Wolverines their first loss of the season.

He coordinated the defense at Nevada from 1983-85. His defense led the Big Sky in total defense twice as the Wolf Pack won two Big Sky championships during his tenure.

His first full-time job in collegiate coaching was in 1981, when he coached the secondary at Drake for two seasons. Miller got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Texas-Arlington in 1978 on Bud Elliott's staff. He followed that with a stint as a graduate assistant for two seasons (1979-80) at Oklahoma State under Jimmy Johnson.

Miller, who also coached in the 1991 Blue-Gray Football Classic, is a graduate of Hutchinson High School. He played two years at Hutchinson Junior College in 1974-75 and then finished his collegiate career playing safety at Texas-Arlington in 1976-77.

Miller, who earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Texas-Arlington in 1978, and his wife, Lisa, have two grown children, Cole and Jackson.

POSITION	Offensive Line
ALMA MATER	Missouri, 2004
HOMETOWN	Klein, Texas
WIFE	Lauren
CHILDREN	Andrew

A.J. Ricker is in his first season on the Kansas staff, serving as offensive line coach.

A seasoned veteran among offensive line coaches, Ricker not only played offensive line in the Big 12 Conference, but he has coached the position in the Southeastern Conference, Big 12, Big Ten, American Athletic Conference and Mid-American Athletic Conference.

Prior to joining the Jayhawk staff, Ricker spent the 2017 campaign on the Oklahoma State staff, serving as an

"A.J. has seen it all. He has both coached and played with the best of the best. I like the way his offensive linemen play. They are tough, gritty guys. They play with tenacity and I am looking forward to him bringing that edge to our program."

offensive analyst, working directly with the offensive line. During his lone season at OSU, the Cowboys ranked second nationally in total offense, averaging 568.9 yards per game, including having the nation's top passing offense at 389.2 yards per outing.

Ricker was in a similar role in 2016 at Houston. While he was on staff at UH, the Cougars ranked 26th nationally in scoring offense at 35.6 points per game and were 17th in the FBS in passing offense, averaging 296.3 yards per contest.

A Missouri graduate, Ricker returned to his alma mater as the offensive line coach for 2014 and 2015 seasons.

In his first year of guiding the Tiger offensive line, Ricker molded a young unit into one that improved over the course of the year and played a key role in MU's late-season surge to claim the SEC Eastern Division title. Despite having just one player return in the same spot he manned in 2013, Ricker's line paved the way for 5,138 yards of offense in a well-balanced attack that featured 2,648 passing yards and 2,490 rushing yards.

Under Ricker's watch, left tackle Mitch Morse developed into a top-line performer, as Morse was honored as a All-SEC Second Team player by league coaches. Morse was invited to the NFL Combine and went on to be a second-round pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2015 NFL Draft. Through his first three NFL seasons, Morse has played in 38 games for the Chiefs, starting all 38.

In addition, Ricker also mentored Evan Boehm, who set a MU record with 52-career starts. Boehm started all 12 games his freshman season at right guard, before moving to center for his final three seasons, starting all 40 games. He went on to be a fourth-round pick by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2016 NFL Draft.

Ricker returned to Mizzou with eight years of coaching experience under his belt. He began his coaching resume as a graduate assistant at Western Michigan, serving in that role for the 2006 and 2007 seasons, before advancing to a full-time assistant role as offensive line coach in 2008.

Ricker moved to St. Joseph's College (in Rensselaer, Ind.) as offensive line coach in 2009, and served the 2010 season as the program's head coach before later returning to WMU for the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator.

Following his second stint at Western Michigan, Ricker spent the 2013 season as the offensive line coach at Illinois.

Ricker was an All-Big 12 First Team center as a senior at Missouri in 2003, as part of the first bowl-eligible team at MU since 1998. He started 47-consecutive games at center for the Tigers from 2000-03, which established a record at any position at MU at the time, and served as a two-time team captain.

Ricker earned his undergraduate degree from Mizzou in agriculture in 2004. Following graduation, he signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Chicago Bears and was allocated to the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2005. In 2006, and for part of 2007, he was a member of the Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm before retiring from his playing days.

Ricker and his wife, Lauren, have one son, Andrew.

GARRETT RILEY

POSITION	Tight Ends/Fullbacks
ALMA MATER	Texas Tech, 2012
HOMETOWN	Muleshoe, Texas
WIFE	Lindsay
CHILDREN	Gibson

Garrett Riley is in his second season as an assistant coach at Kansas and his third season with the program. Riley joined the KU staff in the spring of 2016 as an offensive analyst, coached the Jayhawk quarterbacks in 2017 and is currently mentoring the KU tight ends and fullbacks.

In 2017, Riley saw two players play the majority of the snaps under center in Peyton Bender and Carter Stanley. Bender started KU's first seven games of the year and became the Jayhawks' fastest player to pass for 1,000 yards in his career--doing so in his first three games.

DAVID BEATY ON RILEY

"Garrett has been a tremendous asset to our program since the day he set foot on campus. He has had his hand in some high-powered offenses. His extensive knowledge of the Air Raid offense has been invaluable as we implemented it to our team, and I am looking forward to him having an even greater impact in his new role."

Stanley made his first start of 2017 against Kansas State and stepped up in a major way. He connected on 23-of-48 passing attempts to notch 418 passing yards. His production was the fifth-most passing yards in Kansas single-game history, and marked the first 400-plus yard passing game for a Jayhawk since Todd Reesing threw for 498 yards vs. Missouri in 2009.

Riley came to Lawrence after spending the 2015 season as the outside receivers coach at East Carolina. During his time coaching the ECU outside receivers, Riley mentored Zay Jones, one of the most decorated receivers in NCAA history. In 2016 Jones became the all-time NCAA FBS career receptions leader with 399 catches.

Riley was on the staff at ECU for three seasons, his first two as an offensive assistant working alongside his brother, Lincoln Riley, the current head coach at Oklahoma. As an offensive assistant, he worked primarily with the quarterback position, while coordinating the defensive scout team and conducting video analysis. During his time working with the ECU quarterbacks, Riley assisted Shane Carden, who became the school's all-time leader in passing yards (11,991) and passing touchdowns (86). Carden was named the 2014 American Athletic Conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

Riley earned his first collegiate position in 2012 as running backs coach at Augustana (Ill.) College, helping rebuild a Vikings program that was 2-8 a year earlier into a 5-5 squad that improved its rushing total by 500 yards. Prior to his year at Augustana, he spent the 2011 season as a quarterbacks and passing game assistant, where he helped Lubbock's (Texas) Roosevelt High School set four school quarterback and five receiving records in 2011.

Riley earned a bachelor's degree in general business from Texas Tech in 2012 and was a quarterback on the Red Raiders' roster during the 2008 and 2009 seasons. As a quarterback at Texas Tech, Riley was directly mentored by Mike Leach, who was not only the head coach, but also Riley's position coach. During Riley's time at TTU, the Red Raiders registered 20 wins and pair of bowl appearances. He transferred to Stephen F. Austin in 2010 and helped the Lumberjacks to a Southland Conference title and a No. 1 FCS ranking in both passing and total offense.

As a player and coach, Riley has already been a part of four bowl games -- Cotton (2008/Texas Tech), Alamo (2009/Texas Tech), Beef 'O' Brady's (2013/East Carolina) and Birmingham (2014/East Carolina).

As a prep athlete at Muleshoe High School, Riley was the Associated Press All-State 2A Offensive Player of the Year in 2008 after playing a role in four-straight playoff appearances.

A native of Muleshoe, Texas, Riley is married to the former Lindsay Murff. The couple resides in Lawrence along with their son, Gibson.

CASSIUS SENDISH

POSITION	Safeties
ALMA MATER	Kansas, 2015
HOMETOWN	Baltimore, Md.

Kansas football head coach David Beaty announced the promotion of Cassius Sendish from graduate assistant to a full-time coaching position on the Jayhawks' staff in March 2018. Sendish, who spent the 2017 season working closely with defensive coordinator, Clint Bowen, in the KU secondary, mentors the Kansas safeties.

Sendish spent the 2016 season on the KU staff, working with director of football technology, Jeff Love, in the football video department breaking down game and practice film for the coaches and players.

As a double major, Sendish is a 2015 graduate of KU with bachelor's degrees in both sociology and communications studies. He was a two-year letterwinner for the Jayhawks on the gridiron, starting all 24 games he played during his KU career. He served as a team captain in 2014 on his way to earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors and a spot on the Academic All-Big 12 Second Team. Sendish concluded his Jayhawk career with 137 tackles, 3.0 tackles-for-loss, five pass breakups, 1.0 sack and one fumble recovery he returned 30 yards for a touchdown.

Sendish and his girlfriend, Courtney, reside in Bonner Springs with their dog, Bubba.

DAVID BEATY ON SENDISH

"Cassius was the right man at the right time. I know that our players and entire staff have a ton of respect for him and we are excited for him to step into this role."

JESSE WILLIAMS

POSITION	Defensive Line
ALMA MATER	Sonoma State, 1988
HOMETOWN	Rubidoux, Calif.
WIFE	Felicia
CHILDREN	Jessien, Trae & A.J.

A veteran of the college game for nearly a quarter century, Jesse Williams is in his second season as the defensive line coach at Kansas.

In 2017, Williams produced two All-Big 12 players, including first-team defensive tackle Daniel Wise and second-team member defensive end Dorance Armstrong Jr. Wise had one of the best seasons of any defensive lineman in the Big 12 as he turned in 16.0 tackles-for-loss, including 7.0 sacks. His 16.0 TFLs ranked second in the Big 12 in 2017 and 11th in the FBS rankings.

DAVID BEATY ON WILLIAMS

"Jesse brings a wealth of technical knowledge that is extremely valuable in our D-line room. The productivity he has gotten from his players from a run and pass rush standpoint is impressive. His defensive lines have consistently become a unit other teams game plan around because of his ability to find, evaluate and teach the position."

Williams arrived in Lawrence after spending the previous five seasons as the defensive line coach at Ohio.

The 2016 Bobcat defense produced 104 tackles-for-loss, manufactured 44 total sacks and held opponents to 104.4 yards rushing per game. Williams' defensive line broke through blocking schemes for 59.5 TFLs and got to the quarterback 31.5 times.

Williams tutored the 2016 Mid-American Conference (MAC) Defensive Player of the Year Tarell Basham to a team-high 11.5 sacks in becoming Ohio's all-time sack leader. Williams also helped Casey Sayles to Third Team All-MAC honors with 6.0 sacks and 7.5 tackles-for-loss.

In 2014, the Bobcat defense was stout against the run allowing only 132 yards on the ground per game and holding opponents to under 100 yards in six games. Williams' defensive line recorded 12.0 sacks led by Basham's 5.0 sacks.

In 2013, Williams directed a defensive line that accounted for 36 sacks, which tied for 20th in the country and ranked second in the MAC. Eight of that season's 36 sacks came in the Bobcats' league-opener against Akron, which tied for second all-time.

In addition to its ability to get to the quarterback, Ohio also featured a strong run defense, which held four opponents to 150 yards or less in a single game.

During the 2013 campaign, Ohio defensive tackle Antwan Crutcher logged a career-best season as he tallied 50 tackles. Senior defensive end Ty Branz also posted a career-best 6.0 sacks before suffering a season-ending injury.

Basham made an immediate impact as he totaled 7.5 sacks as a rookie, which tied for fifth all-time for a single season. Following the year, Basham was named to the Football Writer's Association of America (FWAA) Freshman All-America Team.

In his first season at Ohio, Williams led a defensive line unit that combined for 249 tackles, 39 tackles-for-loss and 14.5 sacks. In addition, Ohio held opponents to an average of 159.8 yards per game, which ranked sixth in the MAC. The Bobcats limited two opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, including Louisiana-Monroe in the Advocate V100 Independence Bowl.

Following the Independence Bowl win, defensive end Tremayne Scott was named to the CBSsports.com All-Bowl team. Scott was the only player from the MAC to be named to the team after he totaled five tackles, two sacks and recorded his first career interception.

Prior to the Bobcats' fourth-straight bowl appearance, defensive tackle Neal Huynh would earn All-MAC Third Team honors. Huynh's all-conference honor was the first of his collegiate career. Following the year, Huynh signed a professional contract with the Atlanta Falcons.

Before his tenure at Ohio, Williams spent time at New Mexico State (2009-11), Nebraska-Kearney (2007-08), Colorado State (1999-2006), San Jose State (1998), Holy Cross (1996-97), Eastern Washington (1995), Portland State (1992-94) and Sonoma State (1988-91).

A graduate of Sonoma State (Calif.), Williams and his wife, Felicia, have three children: Jessien, Trae and A.J.

ALMA MATER UAB, 2004

HOMETOWN Prattville, Ala.

WIFE Fawn

CHILDREN Valor & Violet

Zac Woodfin, a high-energy, well-respected leader in the strength and conditioning community, is in his second season as director of football strength and conditioning at Kansas.

Woodfin came to Kansas after spending the previous two years at Southern Miss where he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the entire athletics department. He garnered the title of Interim Director of Athletics at Southern Miss on Dec. 20, 2016, while USM searched for a replacement for outgoing athletics director Bill McGillis. Woodfin handled the Golden Eagle football strength and conditioning needs and also oversaw the other 15 Southern Miss sports.

In 2014, Woodfin was named FootballScoop Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year, while serving as head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, UAB. He helped the Blazers improve from 2-10 in 2013 to 6-6 in 2014.

Prior to his time in Birmingham, Woodfin spent three seasons with the Green Bay Packers as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Woodfin broke into the strength industry as a volunteer at Alabama and UAB, and then spent four years working with Athletes Performance in Los Angeles. While at Athletes Performance, he worked with many clients who played for various organizations in the NFL, NBA, MLB, as well as Olympic athletes.

A native of Prattville, Alabama, Woodfin graduated from UAB in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science.

Following a college career in which he became UAB's all-time leading tackler (372 stops), he signed as a free agent with the Green Bay Packers (2005). Woodfin later signed with the Baltimore Ravens and spent two seasons with the organization before a stint in the World Football League and with the Houston Texans.

Woodfin is married to the former Fawn Burke and the couple has a son, Valor, and a daughter, Violet.

DAVID BEATY ON WOODFIN

"Zac is a guy who really knows how to put his stamp on a program. He has a disciplined method of running his strength and conditioning program, yet knows how to make it fun for his players. I am really impressed with his general knowledge of the culture of college athletics and think he is a great fit for our program."

ALMA MATER Kent State, 1983

Jeff Himes is in his 31st year as equipment manager for the Jayhawk football team. Himes came to Kansas from Kent State where he was the head equipment manager for three years.

Himes' duties at KU include purchasing and maintaining all equipment for the football team and supervising the staff of managers.

A native of Mogadore, Ohio, Himes received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Kent State in 1983. He earned his master's degree in athletic administration in 1993 from KU.

NOLAN JONES

POS. Director of FB Operations

ALMA MATER Eastern Kentucky, 2003

Nolan Jones is in his third season as director of football operations at Kansas. As a member of head coach David Beaty's staff, Jones coordinates the day-to-day internal and external operations for the football program.

Jones came to Lawrence with 13 years of experience in football operations, most recently having served in the same capacity at Kent State during the 2015 season. Prior to that he had a brief stint as the assistant director of player personnel at Northwestern.

Jones spent the 2013 season serving as the director of football operations at Michigan and prior to that was the assistant athletic director for football at Southern Mississippi. He joined the Golden Eagles' staff following two seasons as director of football operations at Kentucky.

Prior to Kentucky, Jones spent six years in the Big Ten, serving as director of football operations for five years and assistant director of football operations for one season at Northwestern.

At Kentucky and Northwestern, he also directed the high school camps and coaching clinics, while serving as the liaison to NFL personnel. At Northwestern, he coordinated operations for three bowl game appearances and a 2010 game at Wrigley Field.

Prior to his stint at Northwestern, Jones spent one season as director of football operations at Princeton.

Jones earned bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education with an emphasis in sport administration from Eastern Kentucky. While at Eastern Kentucky, he also served as director of football operations and a graduate assistant coach during the 2003 season.

Jones has two sons, Brycen and Parker. He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Lawrence.

TROY KEMA

POS.

Director of Player Personnel

ALMA MATER

Utah State, 1998

Troy Kema is in his fourth year as the director of player personnel and student services for the Kansas football program. His main responsibilities include setting up community service for the team and helping prepare players for life after football. Kema works in conjunction with KU Leads to help players give back to the community and also serves as a mentor during their time with the program.

A native of Mililani, Hawai'i, Kema came to KU after working at Texas A&M as the assistant athletics director for academic services, where he spent his time primarily with the Aggie football team. Prior to his time at Texas A&M, Kema also gained experience as the University of Colorado's assistant director of academics (2003-06) and at Utah State as an academic coordinator (2000-03).

Kema is a member of the National Association for Academic Advisers for Athletics and belongs to the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association.

A standout player in high school and college, Kema lettered twice in football at Utah State as a two-year starter at offensive guard. He was a team captain his final season at Utah State and earned All-Big West First Team All-Academic honors. Before earning a scholarship to play at Utah State, Kema played at Dixie Junior College and earned First Team All-Western States accolades.

Kema graduated from Utah State with a degree in sociology in 1998 and later earned a graduate degree in educational counseling from the University of Phoenix.

Kema and his wife, Stephanie, have four children: Kailee, Noah, Malia and Isaiah.

RYAN KING

POS.

Asst. AD/Academic & Career Counseling

ALMA MATER

Kansas State, 2008

Ryan King is entering his first year at KU, serving as an assistant athletics director for academic and career counseling, working directly with the Kansas football program.

King's role with the KU football program includes assisting in the coordination of various support services, academic progress monitoring, course scheduling, individual counseling and Big 12 Conference and NCAA certification. King works primarily with the Jayhawk offensive players and specialists.

Before joining the Kansas staff, King spent one year at the University of Idaho as the Director of Student-Athlete Support Services, where he also worked with the football program.

King previously was the Assistant Director of Academics at the University of Missouri. During his time at Mizzou, the program saw unprecedented academic success with the football team. In King's tenure, football student-athletes had the highest team GPA in recent history, a record number of football student-athletes in graduate school, and an all-time high on SEC honor roll, eclipsing the previous number by double digits. He also spearheaded the Mizzou Made Graduate Assistants program and revamped the summer bridge program for incoming student-athletes.

Prior to his time at Mizzou, King spent nearly three seasons with the University of Arkansas football team, working in academics. During those seasons, the Razorbacks had record numbers with their team GPA and Honor Roll placement.

Before spending nearly six years in the SEC, King worked with football student-athletes at Middle Tennessee State University and Kansas State University.

King received both his master's, and bachelor's degrees from Kansas State University in counseling and student development, and secondary education, respectively.

King and his wife Pamela, have two daughters, Avary and Briley.

KATY LONERGAN

POS.

Director of FB Communications

ALMA MATER

Kansas, 1998

Katy Lonergan is entering her 12th year with the Kansas Athletics Communications office where she serves as the director of football communications. Lonergan joined the KU staff in 2007 and worked with the Jayhawk women's basketball program for four seasons before moving to her current position.

Lonergan's role as director of football communications includes working alongside the Jayhawks' coaching staff and players, being responsible for management of the public image of the program. She is the liaison between local and national media as well as the primary contact with television and radio networks who broadcast Kansas games.

Lonergan, a Kansas graduate, returned to her alma mater after spending the previous seven years working at the University of Mississippi in a similar capacity. While at Ole Miss, Lonergan worked primarily with the Rebel football and women's basketball programs. During her tenure at Ole Miss, she worked with NFL first-round draft picks Eli Manning, Deuce McAllister, Patrick Willis, Michael Oher, Peria Jerry and Chris Spencer, as well as 2007 WNBA Rookie of the Year Armintie Price.

An Iola, Kansas native, Lonergan graduated from KU with a degree in psychology, with an emphasis in health, physical education and recreation. While a student at KU, she served three years as a student manager with the Jayhawk women's basketball program and one year as a student assistant in the Kansas Athletics Communications office.

Lonergan and her golden receiver, Archie, live in Lenexa.

JEFF LOVE

POS. Director of Football Technology

ALMA MATER Central Florida, 2006

Jeff Love returned to Kansas as the director of football technology in July 2016. Love, now in his third season at KU, came back to Lawrence after spending four years as an assistant coach at Houston Baptist, where he worked with the quarterbacks and wide receivers, and was part of the staff that started the football program at HBU in 2012.

Love spent 2011 as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Occidental College in Los Angeles. The Tigers led the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in turnovers created, interceptions, red zone interceptions and fumbles recovered, while cornerback Ayrtton Bates earned first-team all-conference honors under Love's guidance.

Prior to his stint at Occidental, Love was the video coordinator for three seasons (2008-10) at KU. He also previously served as video coordinator at Nevada (2007) and held video assistant positions at Washington State and UCF.

Love earned a bachelor's degree in social science education from UCF in 2006. A native of Punta Gorda, Florida, Love is married to Antoinette Love (formerly Marjanovic), who was a two-time all-Pac 10 soccer player at Arizona State, a member of the Croatian National Team and served as an assistant coach at Kansas and interim head coach and assistant coach at Nevada. The couple has two boys, Cameron Robert and Anthony Niko.

STEPHANIE MAHAL

POS. Asst. AD/Academic & Career Counseling

ALMA MATER Kansas, 2002

Stephanie Mahal is in her fifth year working with the Kansas football program, where she serves as an assistant athletics director for academic and career counseling and is also a learning specialist.

Among Mahal's duties with the KU football program in regards to academic and career counseling are assisting in the coordination of various support services, including academic progress monitoring, course scheduling, individual counseling and Big 12 Conference and NCAA certification. As an academic and career counselor, Mahal works primarily with the Jayhawk defensive players.

In her role as a learning specialist, Mahal provides individualized assistance with educational planning, goal setting, time management, organization and learning strategies to enhance students' academic skills. She also assists students diagnosed with learning exceptionalities in coordinating services and accommodations with KU's Academic Achievement and Accessibility Center on the main campus.

Prior to her time working with the football program, Mahal served as the academic and career counselor for the Jayhawk softball team and a learning specialist for KU's Olympic sports programs for one year. Mahal came to Kansas after working at New Mexico for four years as the student success manager for both the men's and women's basketball teams.

A Minneapolis, Minnesota native, Mahal graduated from Kansas with a bachelor's degree in journalism in 2002. During her time as an undergrad at KU, she was a member of the Jayhawk rowing team.

Mahal obtained a master's degree in speech communications at the University of Nevada in 2009. She is currently pursuing a doctorate in special education and is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

RICKY NG

POS. Dietitian

ALMA MATER University of Alberta, 2012

Ricky Ng is in his second year on the Kansas staff, serving as the performance dietitian for the football program.

As KU football's performance dietitian, Ng works in integration with the athletic training staff and the strength and conditioning coaches to empower and mentor athletes to maximize their skillset through optimizing fueling and recovery.

Prior to joining KU, Ng spent the previous six years in private practice, consulting with teams and individual athletes at a variety of levels and sports at the NHL, CFL, and Olympic level. Ng's work included body composition tracking, and educating athletes in excelling in their yearly programming to maximize adaptations leading into competitions.

Ng earned his bachelor's degree in nutrition and food science from the University of Alberta in 2012. He followed that up with two years of specialization in sports nutrition culminating with an International Olympics Committee Diploma in Sports Nutrition in 2014. He has also completed his ISAK Body Composition Certification for Skinfold assessments.

TYLER OLKER

POS.

Director of Recruiting

ALMA MATER

Northern Colorado, 2014

Tyler Olker is in his fourth year with the Kansas football program, having joined David Beaty's staff in August 2015. As director of recruiting, Olker is responsible for overseeing and coordinating the daily recruiting operations and logistics within the Kansas football program.

Olker's duties at KU include managing the recruiting calendar in regards to official visits, unofficial visits, Junior Days and summer camps. Olker works with the Director of Personnel to coordinate all updates to the recruiting database. He manages the content, creation and design for social media marketing, working closely with the Communications Department. Olker is the liaison to the Kansas Compliance office as it pertains to football recruiting, and he assists the Director of Football Operations on a daily basis.

Olker, a native of Spring Grove, Illinois, came to Kansas from the University of Northern Colorado. While at UNC, he served as a graduate assistant for the 2014 season, working under defensive coordinator Larry Kerr.

Olker graduated from UNC in 2014 with a sports and exercise science degree, and received his master's degree in sports coaching in May 2016. At UNC, Olker was a two-time letterwinner with All-Big Sky Honors on the offensive line. Olker transferred to UNC from the College of DuPage, where he helped his team to a Graphic Edge Bowl victory in 2010.

MICHAEL PEARCE

POS.

Director of Personnel

ALMA MATER

Stephen F. Austin, 1998

Michael Pearce joined KU football head coach David Beaty's staff in the spring of 2018 as the director of personnel. Pearce arrives in Lawrence after spending the previous 19 years as a high school football coach in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex.

Most recently, Pearce was at Irving MacArthur High School from 2002-17. From 2002-2011 Pearce worked as the offensive coordinator. He then was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for the final six years at MacArthur.

Pearce got his start in high school football coaching in 1998 at Allen High School where he spent two seasons as the wide receivers coach. He then moved to North Dallas High School, working under Beaty as his offensive coordinator for the 2001 season before both he and Beaty shifted to MacArthur.

Prior to his time in the high school ranks, Pearce spent one year at his alma mater, Stephen F. Austin State University, where he was a restricted earnings coach working with the quarterbacks.

Pearce earned his bachelor's degree at SFA in 1998. He earned four letters playing wide receiver for the Lumberjacks.

A native of College Station, Texas, Pearce and his wife, Kay, have two daughters, Sidney and Kendall.

OWEN STANLEY

POS.

Head Football Athletic Trainer

ALMA MATER

West Chester University, 2002

Owen Stanley, who possesses a wealth of professional and collegiate experience, joined the Kansas Athletics staff in May 2018 as the head football athletic trainer.

Stanley came to the KU football program after spending the previous three seasons at Texas A&M, serving in the same role.

Prior to working with the Aggies, Stanley served as Assistant Athletics Director of Sports Medicine from 2009-15 at South Dakota State University.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Stanley earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from West Chester University (Pa.) in 2002. He went on to earn a master's degree in kinesiology and health promotion from the University of Kentucky in 2005, while serving as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Wildcats' football and baseball teams, after finishing an internship with the New York Jets.

Upon graduating from Kentucky, Stanley joined the athletic training staff at the University of Northern Iowa in 2005, working as the assistant director of athletic training services and head football athletic trainer.

In 2007, Stanley accepted the position of assistant athletic trainer for the National Football League's Kansas City Chiefs, where he worked until moving on to SDSU.

Stanley's other professional experience includes internships with the NFL's New York Jets and the Philadelphia Wings of the Professional Indoor Lacrosse league.

In addition to his athletic training experience, Stanley has given presentations at the National Athletic Trainers' Association Annual Meeting and the Southeast Athletic Trainers' Association Symposium and has been published in the Journal of Sports Medicine.

Stanley also chaired the Young Professionals Committee of the Missouri Athletic Trainers Association and serves as an E-Mentor for NATA and on numerous committees and advisory councils on and off campus.

Stanley, who earned his EMT certification in 2012, lives in Lawrence with his wife, Erin, and his son, Carter.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 is in its 23rd year in 2018-19 as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of seventh-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012 and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains as the only autonomy conference to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule. The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 22 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 60 NCAA team titles and 654 individual national championships.

The Big 12 has been at the forefront in college athletics reform, specifically with student-athlete welfare issues to include cost of attendance, student-athlete time demands and strengthening its policy for concussion diagnosis and management. In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced and hosted three "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Two were conducted in Washington, D.C., and one in New York City. Panelists included respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership and sports journalism. The third forum featured a special session comprised of student-athletes. The Big 12 has continued the "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums the past four seasons with Dallas serving as the host site for three events and one staged in Atlanta.

Big 12 Champions for Life, an initiative of the Big 12 Conference, will begin its fourth year in 2018-19. It features student-athletes, selected by Conference institutions, in a series of public service announcements highlighting the positive impact an athletics scholarship has had on their lives leading to stories of personal growth and success.

The Big 12 was the only conference in 2017-18 that placed a team in the College Football Playoff (Oklahoma), Men's Final Four (Kansas), Men's College World Series (Texas and Texas Tech) and Women's College World Series (Oklahoma). National championships were won by Texas men's swimming & diving and Oklahoma State men's golf. UT's title was its fourth-consecutive while the Big 12 picked up its second-straight men's golf crown with Oklahoma winning it in 2017. Of the eight teams that advanced to match play in the men's golf championship, half of the field represented the Big 12.

For the first time in Conference history, the Big 12 sent 90% of its men's basketball teams to postseason play with seven in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship and two in the National Invitation Tournament. The Big 12 is the first league since at least 1996-97 to accomplish this feat. The Conference's 70% participation in the NCAA Championship was the highest of all leagues.

The Big 12 led the nation in the fall of 2017 with 80% of its teams selected to bowl games highlighted by No. 2 Oklahoma competing in the CFP Semifinal at the Rose Bowl. The Big 12 had at least 80% of teams bowl eligible for the third time in Conference history (90% in 2010 and 80% in 2011). It marked just the 14th occasion since 1996 that an FBS league had at least 80% of teams with six-plus wins. The Big 12 has made six appearances in a CFP News Year's Bowl in the four years of the structure.

Additionally, the Big 12 added its sixth Heisman Trophy winner since 1996 with Baker Mayfield (Oklahoma) taking home the 2017 award. The Conference has had a finalist in 14 of its seasons for a total of 19 with two finalists in five seasons. Thirty-eight major individual awards have been won by Big 12 student-athletes in football over the past nine campaigns. Overall, more than 4,800 student-athletes have earned All-America recognition.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Ty Darlington (Oklahoma) was the recipient of the 2015 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) was presented the NCAA Today's Top 10 Award in January 2015. It recognizes former student-athletes for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. Since 1996, the Big 12 has a total of 11 honorees for this prestigious award. In the last seven seasons, 14 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 Award with Oklahoma State's Noah Gade (cross country), Oklahoma's Lily Miyazaki (women's tennis) and Baylor's Colin Kober (men's golf) picking up the most recent honors in 2017-18. The accolade showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has over 650 Academic All-America recipients, averaging about 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. Thirteen times in the past 14 years a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport, including Jevon Carter (West Virginia) for men's basketball in 2017-18.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 421 scholars have received over $3.1 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 22 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 38 million people. Nearly 5,000 student-athletes from across the United States and around the world compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 21 of its 23 sports with the Football Championship Game returning in 2017 after a six-year absence. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition.

The Conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

BIG 12 COMMISSIONER BOB BOWLSBY

Bob Bowlsby, one of the most respected athletic administrators in the nation, was named the fourth full-time Commissioner of the Big 12 Conference on May 4, 2012. The hire was praised throughout college athletics circles as yet another step in the continuing strength and stability of the Big 12.

Bowlsby has been at the forefront of change in collegiate athletics and was appointed to the inaugural NCAA Division I Council in 2015. The Division I governance body establishes and revises new rules that will oversee and guide all of college sports. He is also the chair of the Football Oversight Committee which oversees all aspects of collegiate football and reports directly to the NCAA Division I Council.

In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Seven events have been conducted in four different cities across the nation – New York City, Washington DC (2), Dallas (3) and Atlanta – with panelists including respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership, student-athletes, media members and activists.

Big 12 Champions for Life, another initiative of the Conference, will begin its fourth year in 2018-19. It features student-athletes, selected by Big 12 institutions, in a series of public service announcements highlighting the positive impact an athletics scholarship has had on their lives leading to stories of personal growth and success.

In his tenure with the Conference, Bowlsby finalized one of the most lucrative television deals in college athletics and played a key role in the formation of the College Football Playoff that began in 2014-15, the first postseason playoff in the history of the sport. He also negotiated a partnership with the Southeastern Conference in which both leagues' giving the Big 12 some of the premier postseason destinations in college football. Additionally, under his leadership, the Big 12 Football Championship Game was reinstated beginning with the 2017 season.

Improved scheduling has been another priority under Bowlsby which resulted in a men's basketball Big 12/SEC Challenge that was staged for the first time in 2013-14. Women's basketball also created a Big 12/SEC Challenge that expanded to full conference participation in 2016-17. A non-conference scheduling requirement was added in football in which every team must annually play at least one non-conference game against an autonomy conference institution (ACC, Big Ten, Pac-12 and SEC) or Notre Dame.

In his first six years, Bowlsby has seen 15 national championships added to the Big 12 trophy case and 120 NCAA individual event crowns. Seventeen additional conference squads finished as runner-up in NCAA competition. Six teams have competed in College Football Playoff New Year's Bowls in the four years of the structure with Oklahoma making the Conference's first appearance in the CFP semifinals in 2015 and a repeat showing in 2017. National titles were captured in 2017-18 by Texas men's swimming & diving and Oklahoma State men's golf. The Big 12 also added a Heisman Trophy to its collection with the selection of Oklahoma's Baker Mayfield in 2017.

The Big 12 was the only conference in 2017-18 that placed a team in the College Football Playoff (Oklahoma), Men's Final Four (Kansas), Men's College World Series (Texas and Texas Tech) and Women's College World Series (Oklahoma).

Bowlsby has led the Big 12 Conference to record revenue amounts during his tenure. This is in addition to monies received directly by each institution for its third-tier media rights.

Prior to his role at the Big 12, Bowlsby spent six years directing a Stanford University athletics department that sponsors 35 varsity sports and claimed an unprecedented 17 consecutive Learfield Sports Directors Cups, emblematic of the top overall athletics program in the country.

Bowlsby arrived at Stanford after a 15-year stint as the Director of Athletics for the University of Iowa. In his final four years, he guided and supervised the merger of the Hawkeye men's and women's athletic departments that included 24 varsity sports.

Throughout his career, Bowlsby has emerged as a national leader in intercollegiate and amateur athletics. He was of Directors in 2007 and completed that term at the 2014 Winter Olympiad in Sochi, Russia. In 2002, President George W. Bush chose Bowlsby to be a member of the Commission on Opportunities in Athletics, which reviewed the first 30 years of Title IX.

Bowlsby has previously served as president of the NCAA Division I-A Athletics Directors' Association, chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (2003-04, '04-05) and chaired the NCAA Management Council. In addition, he has also chaired the NCAA Wrestling Committee, served on NCAA committees on Financial Aid and Amateurism, the Special Committee to Review Amateurism Issues and the Special Committee to Review Financial Conditions in Athletics.

The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named Bowlsby in 2001-02 as Central Region Athletic Director of the Year and Sports Business Journal selected him from the four regional award winners as the National Athletics Director of the Year. The award highlights the efforts of the athletic directors for their commitment and positive contributions to campuses and their surrounding communities.

Before his stint overseeing the Hawkeye athletic department he served in the same role for seven years at the University of Northern Iowa. A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Bowlsby was named to that post in 1984. He was previously in the role of Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities at the school.

Bowlsby earned his bachelor's degree from Minnesota State University (Moorhead) in 1975 and his master's degree from the University of Iowa in 1978. In February 2013, he was named to the NCAA 40th Anniversary Tribute Team, which recognized the 40th anniversary of NCAA Division II competition. He was a four-year letterwinner in wrestling at MSUM and served as captain during his senior year when he won a NSIC title, and in 2013 he received the Alumni Achievement Award. Bowlsby was inducted into the Dragon Sports Hall of Fame in 1998 and the University of Northern Iowa Hall of Fame in 2007. He also serves on the National Advisory Board of the Positive Coaching Alliance and the Board of the National Football Foundation.

Born on January 10, 1952, Bowlsby has been married to his wife, Candice, for over 40 years. They have four children and five grandchildren.

2017 GAME RECAPS

1 OFFENSE PROPELS KANSAS TO 38-16 WIN

	SEMO (0-1)	16
	KANSAS (1-0)	38

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN. • SEPT. 2, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 32,134

Kansas football opened the 2017 season with a bang as junior quarterback Peyton Bender connected with junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., for a 77-yard touchdown on his third attempt in a Jayhawk uniform. Taking a 7-0 lead just 2:19 seconds into the game, Kansas never looked back going on to beat Southeast Missouri State 38-16 in front of 32,134 fans inside Memorial Stadium.

Bender went 23-of-37 on the night and connected on three more touchdown passes throughout the night including a highlight-reel one handed grab from sophomore wide receiver Chase Harrell with 8:57 remaining in the opening quarter, a 16-yard completion for Sims' second score of the night with 13 seconds remaining in the first half, and a 57-yard catch and run from senior tight end Ben Johnson in the third.

The 2007 Kansas football team was in attendance for its Kansas Athletics Hall of Fame induction, and among those who made it back to Memorial Stadium for the halftime ceremony was Jayhawk legend Todd Reesing. Bender's four-touchdown night was the first since Reesing's four-touchdown performance against Missouri in 2009. In that same game, he threw for a Kansas record 498 yards, and while Bender's night didn't quite match that, his 364 yards was the most since the Border Showdown performance from Reesing eight years ago.

Aside from Bender's four passing touchdowns, the Jayhawks scored on a 10-yard rush from freshman running back Dom Williams with 10:17 remaining in the third quarter to take a 28-10 lead, before Bender's final touchdown of the night to Johnson. Senior kicker Gabriel Rui made his debut in the Crimson and Blue and went a perfect 5-of-5 on PATs and recorded his first-career field goal, a 25-yarder with 14:14 remaining in the game to cap the KU scoring.

With all of the excitement of the Jayhawk offense, the Kansas defense impressed by holding the Redhawks to just 264 total yards, which was the lowest opponent total since last season's opener against Rhode Island. Redshirt junior Joe Dineen Jr., led all players with 15 total tackles (11 solo) to match a career high set against West Virginia in 2015.

The Jayhawk defense forced SEMO to two three-and-outs to start the game and prevented the Redhawks from scoring on their first five drives of the contest, but a fumble from junior Tyler Patrick on a punt return gave the visitors the ball at the 24-yard line. SEMO got on the board with a five-play drive that was capped with a 9-yard touchdown pass from Jesse Hosket to Trevon Billington.

A 45-yard field goal from SEMO's Nicholas Litang brought the score to 21-10 with 11:26 remaining in the third, but three-straight scores from the Jayhawks stretched the lead to 28.

Hosket connected on another touchdown for the Redhawks, this time to Kristian Wilkerson with 12:17 remaining in the game, but it was too little, too late for SEMO as the Jayhawk defense ended the visitors' next two drives without a score and KU was able to run out the clock for the victory.

2 KANSAS FALLS TO CENTRAL MICHIGAN

	CENTRAL MICHIGAN (2-0)	45
	KANSAS (1-1)	27

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN. • SEPT. 9, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 28,531

Kansas football fell behind by 18 points in the first half to Central Michigan at Memorial Stadium and was unable to overcome the deficit, ultimately falling 45-27. Three second-half touchdowns, two of which came from freshman running back Dom Williams, wouldn't be enough as the Jayhawks were outgained by the Chippewas, 590-470, with the Jayhawk defense giving up 467 yards and five touchdowns in the air.

Kansas (1-1) opened the second half with an energy that was missing in the first half, completing a 75-yard drive in four plays, capped by a 33-yard touchdown, KU's first of the day, on a reverse from junior wide receiver Ryan Schadler to cut the CMU (2-0) lead to 24-13.

After the touchdown from Schadler, the Kansas defense held Central Michigan to its third three-and-out of the game and took possession of the ball on its own 34 following a 44-yard punt by the Chippewas.

Kansas cut the lead to four with an eight-play, 66-yard drive capped by a one-yard run by Williams. The 14 unanswered points by the Jayhawks to open the half were all but wiped out after Central Michigan scored a touchdown with 5:48 remaining in the third quarter, then followed with an 11-play, 73-yard drive with 13:29 remaining in the game to take a 38-20 lead.

The Jayhawks got back on the board with another touchdown run from Williams, but a 75-yard touchdown pass by Central Michigan on its first play following the KU score set the final tally for the game.

Kansas was the first to score in the game thanks to a 23-yard field goal by senior kicker Gabriel Rui, but otherwise struggled to get things going in the first half, with Central Michigan outgaining KU 267-129 in the first 30 minutes.

Following KU's field goal with 13 minutes remaining in the first quarter, Central Michigan scored 10 unanswered points to take a 10-3 lead.

Senior Cole Moos booted a 50-yard punt and the Jayhawks took advantage of a CMU miscue, as sophomore wide receiver Chase Harrell recovered a ball that was touched on the roll by the Chippewas, giving KU the ball on the Central Michigan 37-yard line. Bender completed three passes on the drive and Williams added seven yards on the ground, but the Jayhawks were held to another field goal to bring the score within four, 10-6.

Central Michigan answered the KU field goal with two touchdown drives of 83 and 90 yards, respectively, to close the first half with an 18-point lead.

Bender finished the game completing 32-of-62 passes for 323 yards and two interceptions. His 62 attempts were the most in a game in Kansas history, topping 58 by David Jaynes in 1973. Bender spread his completions out to four receivers, with senior tight end Ben Johnson leading with seven catches. Freshman wide receiver Quan Hampton caught six passes for a career-best 67 yards receiving.

Williams led the Jayhawks' running game with 64 yards on 18 attempts and also picked up 42 yards on five catches, while Thompson picked up a career-high 48 yards on the ground with 10 rushes, averaging 4.8 yards per attempt.

Redshirt junior linebacker Joe Dineen Jr., led the Jayhawks for the second-straight game with 12 tackles, including 2.5 tackles-for-loss, after tallying 15 in the season opener. Senior cornerback Derrick Neal recorded a career-high nine tackles to aid the Kansas defense.

3 KANSAS TOPPED AT OHIO

	KANSAS (1-2)	30
	OHIO (2-1)	42

PEDEN STADIUM • ATHENS, OHIO • SEPT. 16, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 22,056

A career rushing day for sophomore running back Khalil Herbert wasn't enough for Kansas football as the Jayhawks dropped a 42-30 contest at Peden Stadium in Athens, Ohio. The Kansas defense allowed 7.0 yards per play and the Bobcats scored five touchdowns on 450 total yards offensively.

The Ohio offense scored on its first three drives of the game before being forced to punt for the first time with 11:42 remaining in the second quarter.

Things started off quickly for the Bobcats, with a 63-yard run to move to the Kansas 30-yard line on their first play. The Jayhawk defense forced a field goal on the Bobcats' opening drive, but the home team scored touchdowns on its next two, as well as a two-point conversion on the team's first touchdown, to take an 18-0 lead with 14:53 remaining in the second quarter.

A big chunk of Herbert's career-high 137 yards came on a 56-yard touchdown run with 9:11 left in the second quarter, after a big first-down pickup on 3rd-and-9 thanks to a 16-yard completion from junior quarterback Peyton Bender to junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr.

Ohio answered the Jayhawks' first score with a six-play, 91-yard drive, aided by a 58-yard completion on the drive's fifth play and capped with a nine-yard passing touchdown to extend its lead back to 18 at 25-7.

Getting the ball back with 6:14 remaining in the first half, the Jayhawks put together an 18-play, 80-yard drive that lasted 6:06, where Herbert rushed for 38 yards and Bender completed 5-of-6 passes including a nine-yard touchdown to sophomore Chase Harrell, his second receiving touchdown of the year.

Trailing by 11 at the half, the Jayhawks attempted to catch Ohio off guard with an onside kick to open the third quarter, but the ball was touched before it went 10 yards, giving the Bobcats short field position.

Ohio drove all the way to the seven-yard line, but sophomore safety Mike Lee made an impressive interception in the end zone as he was falling out of bounds to give Kansas the ball back. On the ensuing play, Bender threw an interception to allow the home team to regain possession, and four plays later the Bobcats scored on an eight-yard run to make it 32-14.

Kansas was forced to punt on the following possession and Ohio drove 84 yards on 12 plays to score its fifth touchdown of the game on a nine-yard pass.

The Jayhawks answered with a 12-play, 77-yard drive that saw junior wide receiver Jeremiah Booker catch a 36-yard pass from Bender to move Kansas into Ohio territory and a one-yard completion by Booker for his first-career receiving touchdown.

The Kansas defense came up with a stop on the ensuing Ohio drive and used an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a career-long 34-yard field goal by redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui to bring the score to 39-24.

Ohio tacked on another field goal before Kansas drove 75 yards on its final drive of the game, with Herbert capping his career day with a touchdown as the clock expired to set the final score of 42-30.

Bender ended the day 30-of-47 passing with 343 yards to make it three-straight games with over 300 yards passing. Sims ended the day with six receptions to lead the Jayhawks with 60 receiving yards, while Harrell and Booker picked up 58 and 59 yards receiving, respectively. Joe Dineen Jr., turned in 11 total tackles (four solo), marking his third-consecutive game of 10 or more stops to lead the Kansas defense.

4 MISCUES HURT KANSAS IN LOSS TO WEST VIRGINIA

	No. 14 WEST VIRGINIA (3-1, 1-0 BIG 12)	56
	KANSAS (1-3, 0-1 BIG 12)	34

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN. • SEPT. 23, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 23,901

Kansas sophomore running back Khalil Herbert impressed the home crowd at Memorial Stadium against West Virginia, picking up 291 yards on the ground and two touchdowns, but two interceptions and a fumble proved to be costly in the Jayhawks' 56-34 loss.

Herbert's rushing total was the third-most in the Kansas single-game records, as he surpassed a 283-yard game for Kansas legend Gale Sayers in 1962. Only Tony Sands (396 yards) and Nolan Cromwell (294 yards) have rushed for more yards in the 127-year history of the program.

The Jayhawks came out of the gate firing as Herbert put the team on his back and carried it down the field, rushing 70 yards on 10 attempts on Kansas' first drive, including an 18-yard gain on the game's first play. Despite Herbert's efforts on the drive, the Jayhawks were forced to kick a field goal after a devastating false start on 4th-and-1 at the WVU 3-yard line stalled the KU progression. Redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui drove home the 28-yard attempt to give Kansas a 3-0 lead with 8:52 remaining in the first quarter.

West Virginia rebounded from the Kansas field goal with four unanswered touchdowns to dig the Jayhawks in a 28-3 hole with 5:17 remaining in the first half.

Determined to get his team back in the game, Herbert's number was called on three-straight plays to start the ensuing drive after the fourth WVU touchdown. Gaining seven and one yard on the first two plays, respectively, Herbert broke free on his third attempt of the drive for a career-long 67-yard touchdown run.

The Jayhawks had a prime opportunity to cut into the West Virginia lead after posting a defensive stop and regaining possession of the ball with 44 seconds remaining in the half, but bad luck struck the Jayhawks in the form of a pass that was tipped by junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., before being intercepted and taken into the end zone by West Virginia's Mike Daniels to stretch the Mountaineer lead to 25. Kansas regained composure after the miscue and was able to move down the field in 30 seconds to end the half with a 41-yard field goal from Rui, a new career long for the kicker out of Hinton, Oklahoma.

Down 35-13 at halftime, Kansas came out in the second half with determination and posted two-straight scoring drives. The Jayhawks forced a punt on West Virginia's opening drive of the half and drove 89 yards in nine plays, capped with a 60-yard scamper from Herbert before punching it in for his second score of the game from five yards out to cut the deficit to 15.

The Jayhawk defense stepped up yet again on the ensuing Mountaineer drive, as sophomore cornerback Hasan Defense provided Kansas with a big momentum swing, intercepting at the KU 30. Kansas was unable to capitalize on the takeaway, but forced a West Virginia punt on the following drive and swung the momentum even further in favor of the home team on the first play after the punt.

Bender connected with Sims down the left sideline on a perfectly-placed pass that hit the Houston, Texas native in stride for a 64-yard completion. Sims was drug down at the 3-yard line and a roughing the passer penalty on the same play moved the ball to the 1-yard line, where junior running back Taylor Martin carried it home to bring the Jayhawks within one score at 35-27.

WVU bounced back with a seven-yard completion from quarterback Will Grier to wide receiver David Sills V and extended the Mountaineer lead to 42-27. Kansas completed a 75-yard drive in 12 plays that ended in a seven-yard touchdown from Bender to Sims. Down 42-34 with 7:35 remaining, the Jayhawks needed a big stop from the defense but were unable to get one as West Virginia scored on a six-play, 72-yard drive that ate up 2:12 of the game clock.

5 TEXAS TECH OFFENSE TOO MUCH FOR KANSAS

	TEXAS TECH (4-1, 1-1 BIG 12)	65
	KANSAS (1-4, 0-2 BIG 12)	19

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN. • OCT. 7, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 21,050

Kansas was unable to solve a potent Texas Tech offense, powered by a rushing attack that gained 313-of-603 total yards, including 161 by senior Justin Stockton and four rushing touchdowns by junior Desmond Nisby, as the Jayhawks fell on Homecoming to the Red Raiders, 65-19.

Texas Tech controlled the game from the opening drive, scoring 21 unanswered points on its first three drives. A nine-play, 75-yard drive, capped with a 13-yard touchdown run from Stockton gave the Red Raiders their first score with 11:43 remaining in the opening quarter.

Kansas was unable to convert on a fourth-down attempt on its first drive, turning the ball over on downs at the Texas Tech 45. The Red Raiders moved the ball down the field with ease on their ensuing drive, scoring in just 50 seconds after Nisby took the drive's third play 47 yards to put the Red Raiders ahead by two scores.

Texas Tech added to its lead after another failed fourth-down conversion by the Jayhawks with its second-straight three-play touchdown drive. TTU quarterback Nick Shimonek connected with wide receiver Quan Shorts for a 37-yard touchdown pass, and after a PAT from Michael Barden the Red Raiders held a 21-0 advantage.

A three-and-out from the Jayhawks put the defense back on the field where a sack by junior defensive end Josh Ehambe built needed momentum for the Jayhawks. After three plays, Kansas forced TTU to punt, and junior Khalil Herbert blocked the punt, setting up the Jayhawks on their own 28-yard line.

A six-play drive was capped with an 18-yard touchdown pass from junior quarterback Peyton Bender to junior wide receiver Jeremiah Booker to make the score 21-7 with 19 seconds remaining in the first stanza.

Texas Tech answered the Jayhawks' scoring drive with 14 unanswered points, all by Nisby. An eight-yard rushing touchdown with 13:06 on the clock and another run to the end zone with 5:16 remaining in the second quarter stretched the TTU lead to 35-7.

Kansas sophomore Mike Lee picked off his second pass of the season on Texas Tech's next drive attempt, which placed Kansas on the Red Raiders' 27-yard line. Bender connected on a 41-yard pass to junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., to put Kansas in the red zone, but after three incomplete passes, the Jayhawks were forced to kick a field goal. Redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui completed a 21-yard field goal for his seventh made try of the season to bring the score to 35-10 before heading into the locker room.

Kansas started off the second half with a 10-play, 42-yard drive, which resulted in a 41-yard field goal by Rui, which tied a career long for the Hinton, Oklahoma native.

After a missed 44-yard field goal attempt by TTU, Kansas answered with a seven-play, 74-yard drive, which included a 45-yard run by Herbert and concluded with a two-yard rushing touchdown by junior running back Taylor Martin, his second of the season. A mishandled snap on the point after attempt resulted in a failed two-point conversion, making the score 35-19 in favor of the visitors from Lubbock.

Texas Tech closed the game with 30 unanswered points, including Nisby's fourth rushing touchdown of the game, setting the final score at 65-19.

6 JAYHAWKS SHUT OUT AT IOWA STATE

	KANSAS (1-5, 0-3 BIG 12)	0
	IOWA STATE (4-2, 2-1 BIG 12)	45

JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA • OCT. 14, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 55,593

Kansas football was plagued by miscues on a rainy day at Iowa State's Jack Trice Stadium, where the Jayhawks fell to the Cyclones, 45-0. The Jayhawks fell in an early hole due to two first quarter turnovers, and were never able to recover despite a strong defensive effort.

Kansas (1-5, 0-3 Big 12) held Iowa State (4-2, 2-1 Big 12) to just 136 yards of offense in the first half, which marked the lowest first-half total by a Big 12 opponent in the David Beatty era, but a series of mistakes started multiple Iowa State drives in Kansas territory.

The errors came early for Kansas after the Jayhawk defense forced an Iowa State punt on the home team's first drive. Junior Steven Sims Jr., mishandled the Cyclone punt and ISU fell on the ball at the KU 46-yard line, just 2:34 into the first quarter.

The Kansas defense was able to recover and hold the Cyclones to a three-and-out, but the Jayhawks' first offensive play following Iowa State's second punt of the day turned into Kansas' second turnover of the game. Junior quarterback Peyton Bender found an open man down field, but the ball hit freshman wide receiver Quan Hampton's hands and was tipped to Iowa State defensive back Kamari Cotton-Moya for an interception. Cotton-Moya returned the pick 23 yards to give Iowa State the ball at the KU 8-yard line.

Iowa State took just 44 seconds to capitalize on the short yardage, with running back David Montgomery taking a four-yard run into the end zone for the touchdown on the drive's second play.

Kansas' defense continued to shine in the stormy conditions, forcing two-straight three-and-outs, but the Jayhawk offense struggled to get anything going with punts on three-straight drives.

Iowa State went up 14-0 after returning the Jayhawks' third punt of the game 68 yards for a touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the first quarter.

Having extended the lead to 17-0 with a 26-yard field goal with 5:56 remaining in the first half, Iowa State took advantage of yet another short-yardage situation. A bad snap on a Kansas punt forced senior Cole Moos to fall on the ball on the KU 23-yard line. The Cyclones ran three plays in 33 seconds to score their third touchdown of the game, a one-yard rush from Montgomery to take a 24-0 lead into the half.

Kansas received the ball to open the second half, but couldn't find a spark at the intermission and were held to a three-and-out to start the third quarter. The Jayhawk defense continued to do its part by holding Iowa State to zero yards on its first drive of the half to force a punt.

A dropped snap on a punt on Kansas' next drive, that resulted in a punt of negative-two yards, put Iowa State in Kansas territory to open its drive once again, and again the Cyclones took advantage of the field position. Iowa State started its drive on the 27-yard line, and after four plays Montgomery had his third rushing touchdown of the game and the Cyclones held a 31-0 lead.

Iowa State would go on to score two more touchdowns, while the Kansas offense was held to just 106 yards of total offense, its lowest total since 2014 against Oklahoma when it was held to 103 yards.

Kansas' defense forced seven Iowa State three-and-outs, its highest total in 2017, led by linebacker Joe Dineen Jr., who posted 16 tackles, tying a career high. The Jayhawks recorded nine tackles-for-loss, including sacks by junior defensive tackle Daniel Wise and sophomore defensive end Isaiah Bean.

7 KANSAS FALLS AT NO. 4 TCU

	KANSAS (1-6, 0-4 BIG 12)	0
	#4 TCU (7-0, 4-0 BIG 12)	43

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM • FORT WORTH, TEXAS • OCT. 21, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 42,969
Kansas football was unable to solve No. 4-ranked TCU, as the Horned Frogs beat the Jayhawks 43-0 at Amon G. Carter Stadium in Fort Worth, Texas.

Kansas was held to just 21 yards of total offense, while TCU picked up 475 yards in the game. The Horned Frogs were powered by 278 yards in the air from senior quarterback Kenny Hill, who threw for five touchdowns on 19-of-26 passing.

Hill's main target on the night was senior wide receiver John Diarse, who hauled in four passes for 130 yards and one touchdown. Jalen Reagor caught two touchdown passes, while wide receivers Desmon White and Taj Williams each grabbed a touchdown pass.

Redshirt junior linebacker Joe Dineen Jr., who led the nation in solo tackles and ranked third in total tackles going into Saturday's game, totaled 11 stops, including seven solo tackles to lead the Jayhawk defense.

Kansas picked up a first down on its opening drive with junior quarterback Peyton Bender finding senior tight end Ben Johnson on third down for a 13-yard completion, but the Jayhawks' drive stalled and they were forced to punt.

KU was held to three-and-outs on its next eight drives and finished the game with just four first downs.

Johnson hauled in four passes in the game as the Jayhawks' leading receiver, totaling 35 yards. Bender finished the night 7-of-16 passing with 38 yards in the air. Junior running back Deron Thompson led Kansas with 10 yards rushing.

TCU scored on its first possession, an eight-play, 71-yard drive that was sparked by a 39-yard completion on third-and-4 from Hill to White down the left sideline. The drive was capped with a six-yard touchdown on another Hill to White connection.

The Horned Frogs drove 52 yards on their next drive, but were held to a field goal, making the score 10-0 with 1:41 remaining in the first quarter.

Kansas forced TCU to punt on its next possession, but the home team took advantage of a short field on its ensuing drive, after a 28-yard punt from KU senior Cole Moos. Taking over at the KU 35-yard line, TCU scored its second touchdown of the game to make the score 17-0 after the PAT.

Hill connected with Diarse for a 67-yard touchdown pass on TCU's following drive, giving the Horned Frogs a 24-point lead with 4:54 remaining in the first half.

That score would stand until the 12:34 mark in the third quarter, when Hill completed his fourth touchdown pass of the game, capping a six-play, 75-yard drive. A failed PAT made the score 30-0.

A 45-yard scoring drive that ended with Hill's fifth and final passing touchdown of the night, followed by a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown from the Horned Frogs stretched the TCU lead to 43-0 and cap the night's scoring with 6:36 remaining in the third quarter.

8 KANSAS COMES UP SHORT IN DILLONS SUNFLOWER SHOWDOWN

	KANSAS STATE (7-4, 5-3 BIG 12)	30
	KANSAS (1-7, 0-5 BIG 12)	20

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN. • OCT. 28, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 36,223
An impressive offensive day that saw sophomore quarterback Carter Stanley throw for 418 yards and junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., haul in nine passes for 233 yards, paired with a strong defensive effort that registered 12.0 tackles-for-loss and held Kansas State to its third-lowest offensive total of 2017 wasn't quite enough, as Kansas fell to the Wildcats 30-20 in the Dillons Sunflower Showdown.

Kansas picked up early momentum when junior defensive end Dorance Armstrong Jr., forced a fumble as Kansas State was threatening to score on its opening drive. Armstrong's strip was recovered by junior safety Tyrone Miller Jr., at the KU 16-yard line.

Making his first start of the season and the fourth of his career, Stanley's career-best day marked the fifth-most passing yards in Kansas single-game history, surpassing Todd Reesing's 412 against Louisiana Tech in 2008. KU's opening drive gave Stanley early confidence, as he completed three passes, including a 16-yard first down to Sims on 3rd-and-7 at the KU 19-yard line. Another big third-down conversion, this time a 47-yard completion to junior wide receiver Tyler Patrick, moved the Jayhawks into the red zone at the 18-yard line. Kansas was unable to fully capitalize, but kicker Gabriel Rui drove home a 28-yard field goal to take the 3-0 lead. The field goal snapped a nine-quarter scoring drought for the Jayhawks.

The game's momentum quickly turned however, as Kansas State's DJ Reed returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards to give the Wildcats a 7-3 lead. Rui stepped up big again, bringing the game within one by hitting a career-long 42-yard field goal with 5:18 remaining in the first quarter.

K-State drove down the field the following drive, moving into the red zone on the third play – a 38-yard completion by KSU sophomore quarterback Alex Delton to junior wide receiver Byron Pringle. After giving up the big play, however, the Kansas defense held tough and junior defensive end Josh Ehambe came up with a TFL for a two-yard loss on first-and-10 from the KU 14. An 11-yard completion on the following play gave K-State a third-and-1, but stops by junior defensive tackle J.J. Holmes and sophomore safety Mike Lee on the next two plays made for a big stop for the Kansas defense at the 5-yard line.

The Wildcats looked to take advantage of the short field position, but the KU defense was able to limit the damage to just a field goal, thanks to TFLs from Lee and Ehambe on back-to-back plays.

The Jayhawks were hurt by a turnover to start the second half, as Stanley lost a fumble and Kansas State took over at the KU 18. K-State needed just three plays and 1:24 to extend the lead to 17-6 after a three-yard rushing touchdown by sophomore running back Alex Barnes.

Kansas State was given favorable field position yet again and was able to extend the lead to 14 on a 36-yard field goal. Kansas took over on its own 3-yard line and drove the ball down field in nine plays and 3:25 seconds to bring the score within one touchdown at 20-13 with 13:26 remaining in the game.

K-State was gifted friendly field position once again after a 35-yard punt from Kansas senior punter Cole Moos and a 10-yard return from Pringle. The Wildcats took over at the KU 26 and used just three plays on the drive, capped with a nine-yard run from Barnes.

Down 27-13, Kansas answered in resounding fashion, as the Stanley-to-Sims connection kept working. On the drive's second play, Sims caught a pass in stride down the middle of the field from Stanley and took it 60 yards to the house for his fourth touchdown of the season, making it 27-20 after a Rui PAT.

Kansas State took over after the punt at the KU 45 with 4:13 remaining in the game and the Jayhawk defense was unable to blank the visiting offense, but held the Wildcats to a field goal to make the final score 30-20.

9 KANSAS TOPPED BY BAYLOR

	BAYLOR (1-8, 1-5 BIG 12)	38
	KANSAS (1-8, 0-6 BIG 12)	9

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE • NOV. 4, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 21,797

Kansas football fell to Baylor, 38-9 at Memorial Stadium, as the Jayhawks were unable to get things going on offense and struggled to find an answer to the Bears' passing game, surrendering 335 yards in the air.

Baylor (1-8, 1-5 Big 12) outgained Kansas (1-8, 0-6 Big 12) 455-289, led by freshman quarterback Charlie Brewer, who connected on 23-of-29 passes for 315 yards and three touchdowns in his first-career start.

The Jayhawks scored first in the game on a 38-yard field goal by redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui. The score was set up by a fake punt that resulted in an 11-yard run for a first down on fourth-and-6 by senior punter Cole Moos.

The Kansas lead lasted just 1:09, as Brewer led the Bears down the field in three plays, connecting with sophomore wide receiver Denzel Mims for a 56-yard completion on the drive's first play. A sack by redshirt junior linebacker Joe Dineen Jr., moved the Bears back seven yards on the next play, but the third play resulted in Brewer's first touchdown pass of the game, a 26-yard completion to freshman wide receiver Gavin Holmes, giving Baylor a 7-3 lead.

Baylor went up 14-3 after a nine-play, 74-yard drive, capped by a 25-yard pass from Brewer to senior tight end Jordan Feuerbacher. Following KU's second field goal of the game, a 40-yard make by Rui with 4:18 remaining in the half, the Bears added another touchdown on a four-yard run by Holmes to lead 21-6 at the break.

KU opened the second half with Rui connecting on his third field goal of the game, a career-long 43-yard make with 10:39 remaining in the third quarter, but the Jayhawks were unable to score again in the game.

Following the Jayhawks' final field goal, Baylor scored 17 unanswered points, with a one-yard rushing touchdown by junior running back Terrence Williams, a 38-yard field goal from sophomore kicker Connor Martin and Brewer's third touchdown pass of the day, this time to senior tight end Ishmail Wainwright.

Sophomore quarterback Carter Stanley completed 17-of-33 passes for 155 yards, throwing one interception. Junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., gained 210 all-purpose yards, including 157 on kickoff returns, 11 rushing and 42 receiving on seven catches. Sophomore running back Khalil Herbert led the Kansas ground game with 10 rushes for 71 yards, including a 43-yard run in the third quarter.

Dineen led the Jayhawks on defense once again, picking up 11 total tackles, including 10 solo stops and four tackles-for-loss. Sophomore safety Mike Lee and sophomore cornerback Kyle Mayberry each tallied seven stops, while four other Jayhawks notched five tackles each.

10 FIRST HALF TURNOVERS HAUNT KANSAS IN LOSS TO TEXAS

	KANSAS (1-9, 0-7 BIG 12)	27
	TEXAS (5-5, 4-3 BIG 12)	42

DKR TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS • NOV. 11, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 96,557

Four Kansas first half turnovers, which turned in to 21 points for Texas, proved to be the deciding factor in the Jayhawks' 42-27 loss at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns converted three interceptions and a fumble recovery in the first 30 minutes of the game into three touchdowns, and the Jayhawks were unable to recover from the early deficit.

Kansas found itself in a hole quickly after failing to recover an onside kick attempt to open the game. Following the recovery by Texas, Longhorn sophomore quarterback Shane Buechele connected on a 49-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Joe Lorenzo on the game's first play from scrimmage.

Down 7-0, Kansas was unable to get things going in its first drive, and was forced to a three-and-out and Texas took over on its own 40-yard line after the KU punt. The Jayhawk defense gave up a first down but was able to hold the Texas offense, thanks to a big third-down sack by junior linebacker Osaze Ogbor, his second of the year.

The Jayhawks started the drive backed up into their own end zone, after the Longhorn punt was downed at the 1-yard line. Following two unsuccessful rushing attempts for no gain, Kansas was forced to pass on third-and-10. Sophomore quarterback Carter Stanley overthrew his target and Texas senior defensive back Antwan Davis intercepted the pass and returned it 16 yards for a touchdown, giving the Longhorns a 14-0 lead with 8:05 remaining in the opening quarter.

Kansas bounced back from the turnover to complete a five-play, 60-yard drive in 1:38. A 15-yard run by Stanley gave the Jayhawks some momentum, and a Texas pass interference on third down extended the KU drive. On the play following the penalty, Stanley hit senior tight end Ben Johnson on a pass down the middle of the field for 20 yards to the UT 5-yard line, then found junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., on the left sideline for the score, pulling the Jayhawks within a touchdown, 14-7.

Texas answered the Kansas scoring drive with a five-play, 60-yard touchdown drive of its own, then intercepted another Stanley pass on the ensuing Jayhawk drive and took the interception down to the KU 9-yard line and capitalized on the second Kansas turnover with a two-play drive to score another touchdown and go up 28-7 with 1:55 remaining in the first period.

The Jayhawks got a touchdown back with an impressive 12-play, 75-yard drive that ate up 3:44 of the game clock. Stanley connected on 5-of-6 pass attempts on the drive, including an eight-yard touchdown to freshman tight end Earl Bostick Jr., his first-career catch and touchdown.

Kansas took possession of the ball on the ensuing kickoff after freshman linebacker Kyron Johnson forced a fumble and junior wide receiver Kerr Johnson Jr., recovered at the Texas 24-yard line.

Redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui moved the Jayhawks three points closer with a 36-yard field goal with 12:12 remaining in the second quarter on the drive following the fumble recovery.

Kansas had an opportunity to cut into the Texas lead once again, after a missed field goal by the Longhorns gave the Jayhawks the ball at their own 27-yard line. Kansas was held to a three-and-out, but the KU defense stepped up with a stop of its own, forcing a Texas punt. Instead of taking over possession, though, Sims muffed the punt and the Longhorns recovered on the KU 22-yard line. With the short field position, Texas converted on two fourth-down attempts to keep the drive alive and scored on a one-yard touchdown run by sophomore wide receiver Lil'Jordan Humphrey to give the Longhorns a 35-17 lead.

The Jayhawks took over with 4:49 remaining in the first half and drove down the field to the Texas four-yard line, but Stanley threw his third interception of the game in the back of the end zone and Texas ran out the clock to go into the half with an 18-point lead.

Kansas picked up three points to bring the game within 15 thanks to a 32-yard field goal by Rui. With the Texas offense back on the field, the Jayhawks held for yet another stop, this time an interception from sophomore cornerback Hasan Defense, his second interception of the season.

After taking over down 15 point with 12:07 remaining in the game, the Jayhawks elected to try to convert a fourth down at the Texas 29-yard line, but the Longhorn defense sniffed out a run to the left to make the stop and take possession.

Texas orchestrated a drive that ate up 5:02 of the game clock with 12 plays, moving 68 yards down field and scoring on a one-yard run by junior running back Chris Warren III to go up by 22, 42-20.

The Jayhawks were forced to punt on their ensuing possession, but the Kansas defense forced a three-and-out to put its offense back on the field with 1:30 remaining in the game. Stanley led the Jayhawks down the field, with a rush of 16 yards and going 4-of-5 in the air. The Vero Beach, Florida native was able to find sophomore wide receiver Chase Harrell down the left sideline for an 18-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to make the score 42-27. The touchdown was too little, too late, however as the Jayhawks couldn't recover an onside kick and Texas ran out the clock.

11 JAYHAWKS DROP FINAL HOME CONTEST TO OKLAHOMA

	No. 3 OKLAHOMA (10-1, 7-1 BIG 12)	41
	KANSAS (1-10, 0-8 BIG 12)	3

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN. • NOV. 18, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 22,854

Kansas football was unable to overcome the powerful offense of No. 3/5 Oklahoma, as the Jayhawks fell to the Sooners 41-3 at Memorial Stadium in Lawrence, Kansas.

Kansas held Oklahoma redshirt senior quarterback Baker Mayfield to a season-low 259 yards passing, including just 105 in the first half, which was the lowest first-half total for the Heisman Trophy hopeful since 2015, but the Jayhawks were unable to get things going offensively and were held to 69 yards in the first half to go into the intermission trailing 21-3.

The Jayhawks forced the Sooners to punt on their first possession, but Kansas was held to a three-and-out on the ensuing drive, giving the ball back to Oklahoma. Senior punter Cole Moos booted a 52-yard punt, but the Sooners returned it to the 41-yard line to take possession in Kansas territory.

The Jayhawks made stops on the Sooners' first three plays to force a 4th-and-3 from the KU 34. Oklahoma elected to go for it on fourth down, and the Jayhawks looked to have the play stopped, flushing Mayfield out of the pocket and nearly bringing him down in the backfield. Mayfield was able to shed the threatening Jayhawks and find redshirt sophomore running back Rodney Anderson open in the middle of the field, and Anderson took it to the end zone to give the Sooners a 7-0 lead with 6:40 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Jayhawks were able to get three points back thanks to a nine-play, 34-yard drive that was capped with a 23-yard field goal by redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui. The drive came after the Jayhawk defense held the OU offense to its first of three-straight three-and-outs.

Following its third-straight three-play stop, the Jayhawks took over possession at their own 16-yard line. Hoping to drive down the field and get a score to swing the game's momentum in its favor, Kansas turned it over on the third play of the drive after a pass from sophomore quarterback Carter Stanley was tipped in the air off the hands of sophomore wide receiver Evan Fairs and the ball was intercepted by Oklahoma senior linebacker Emmanuel Beal.

After the interception return to the KU 11-yard line, the Sooners needed just three plays to take a 14-3 lead on a three-yard rushing touchdown by redshirt senior wide receiver Jordan Smallwood.

The Sooners added to their lead with 10 seconds remaining in the first half, after Mayfield led an 84-yard drive in three plays, completing two passes for 54 total yards, including a 24-yard pass to sophomore wide receiver Marquise Brown for the score.

After recording just 170 yards of total offense in the first half, Oklahoma found its groove in the second half and the Jayhawks struggled to find an answer. The Sooners notched 299 second-half offensive yards to finish the game with 469 as a team, and scored 20 second-half points, including two field goals by junior kicker Austin Seibert.

Mayfield threw a three-yard touchdown to redshirt junior tight end Mark Andrews with 4:52 remaining in the third quarter for the Sooners' first score of the second half before Seibert's first field goal, a 27-yard make with 13:58 left in the game.

Freshman running back Trey Sermon scored Oklahoma's final touchdown of the night, a 25-yard rush before Seibert capped the game's scoring with a 32-yard make to set the final score with 4:39 left in the game.

12 KANSAS FALLS TO NO. 18/21 OKLAHOMA STATE IN SEASON FINALE

	KANSAS (1-11, 0-9 BIG 12)	17
	No. 18 OKLAHOMA STATE (9-3, 6-3 BIG 12)	58

BOONE PICKENS STADIUM • STILLWATER, OKLA. • NOV. 25, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 56,790

Kansas football was unable to contain the Big 12's top scoring offense, falling to No. 18/21 Oklahoma State 58-17 in the Jayhawks' season finale at Boone Pickens Stadium in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Oklahoma State totaled 661 yards of offense against the Jayhawks, led by senior quarterback Mason Rudolph, who finished the game 31-of-43 passing for 438 yards and two touchdowns, including 309 yards and one score in the first half.

On the Cowboys' first play from scrimmage in the game, Rudolph found redshirt freshman wide receiver Dillon Stoner for a 15-yard completion, then connected with redshirt senior wide receiver Marcell Ateman two plays later for a 54-yard score, giving Oklahoma State a 7-0 lead with just 2:55 taken off the clock.

Oklahoma State added to its lead with a 43-yard field goal with 6:22 remaining in the first quarter after Kansas was held to three-and-outs on its first two possessions. The Jayhawks were able to answer with a field goal of their own, as redshirt junior kicker Gabriel Rui hit a career-long 50-yard attempt to make the score 10-7.

Rudolph and the Cowboys wasted no time after the Kansas field goal, and completed a 10-play, 75-yard drive to extend their lead to 17-3. Rudolph completed 5-of-7 attempts on the drive, and moved OSU to the KU 12-yard line before sophomore running back Justice Hill carried it in for the score with 13:41 remaining in the half.

Kansas closed the half with a nine-play, 73-yard drive that ended with a 33-yard touchdown pass from junior quarterback Peyton Bender to sophomore wide receiver Evan Fairs. The touchdown was the first for Bender since October 7 against Texas Tech, and it marked Fairs' first-career score, but came after Oklahoma State stretched its lead to 31 with three-straight scores; a 76-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to Stoner, a 36-yard field goal and a 1-yard touchdown run from redshirt freshman running back LD Brown.

The Jayhawks received to open the second half, but Bender was unable to keep his rhythm from the final drive of the first half going and threw an interception on the third play, giving Oklahoma State the ball on the KU 30-yard line.

The Cowboys took advantage of the short field position and Rudolph threw his second touchdown of the game on the ensuing play, a 36-yard strike to senior wide receiver James Washington to make the score 41-10.

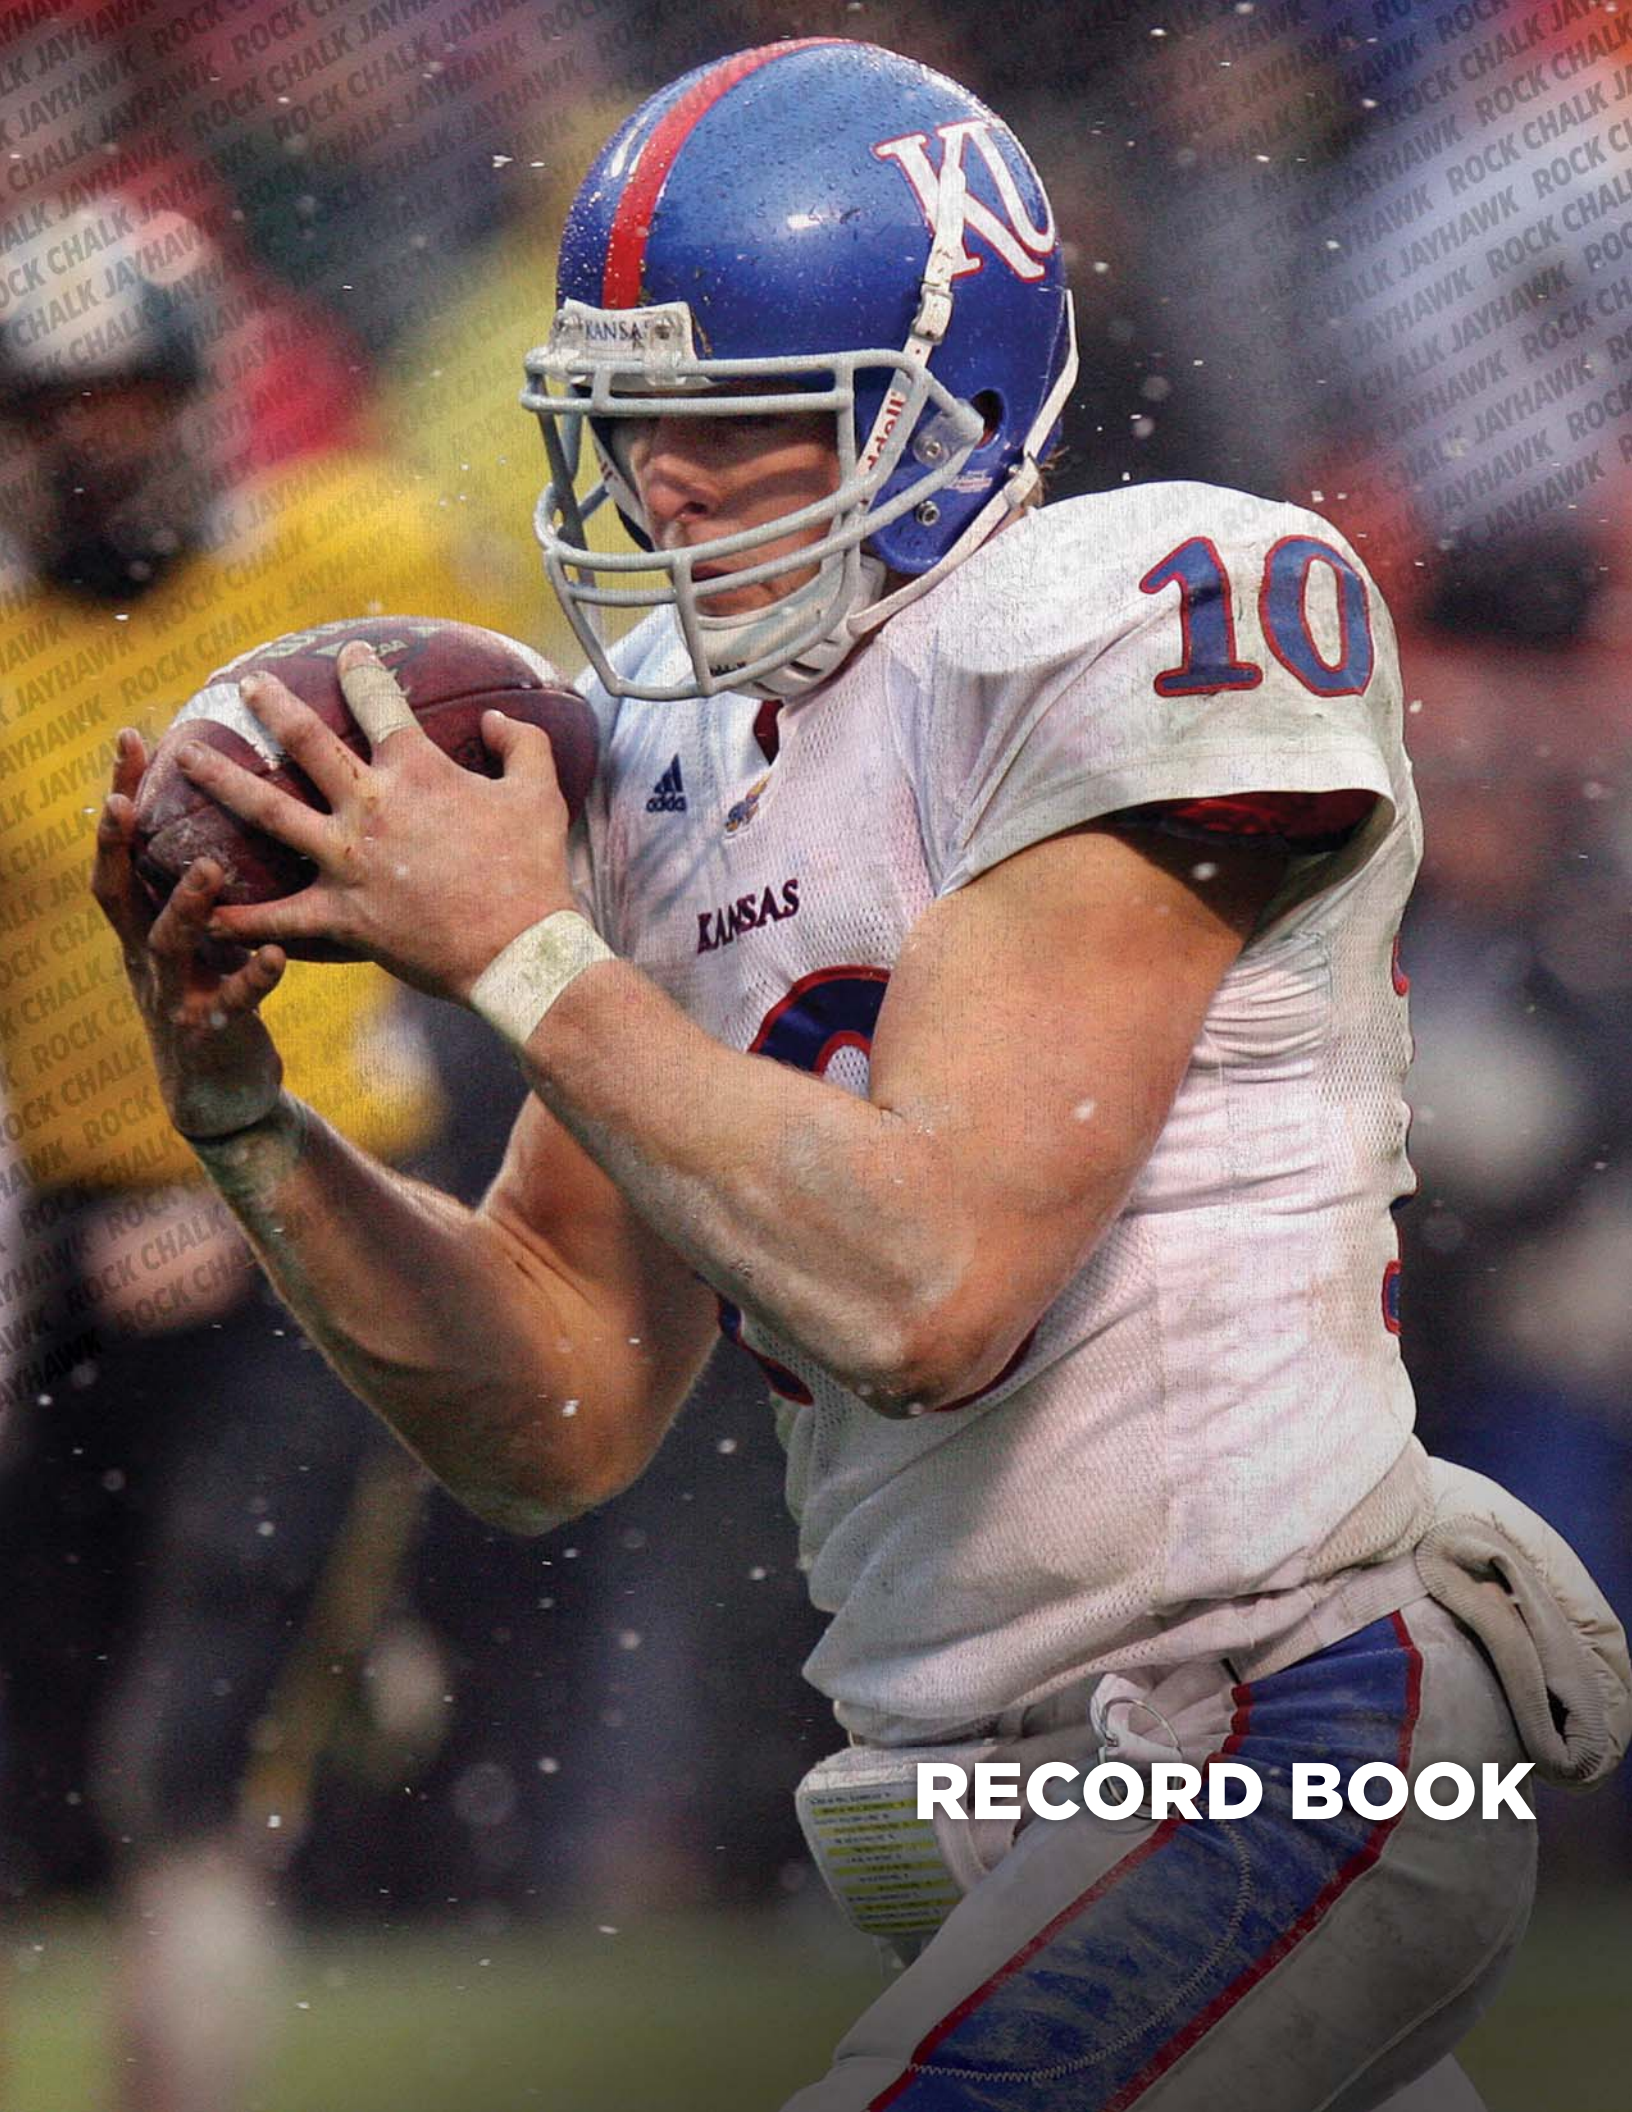

Junior wide receiver Steven Sims Jr., who became just the fifth player in Kansas football history to reach 2,000-career receiving yards earlier in the game, sparked the Jayhawk offense with a 35-yard punt return to the OSU 41-yard line after the Kansas defense held OSU to its second three-and-out of the game.

Following two rushes from junior running back Deron Thompson to pick up a first down, Bender hit Sims with two consecutive passes for 13-yard gains, then threw him a screen pass two plays later from the OSU two-yard line and Sims fought his way to the end zone for his sixth touchdown of the season, making the score 41-17 with 5:41 remaining in the third quarter.

The Sims touchdown was the last time the Jayhawks would score in the season, as Oklahoma State closed the game on a 17-0 run to set the final score of 58-17.

Bender finished the game 17-of-32 with 172 yards passing, two touchdowns and one interception, while Sims hauled in nine of those passes for 69 yards. Junior running back Taylor Martin picked up 60 yards on the ground for Kansas on 17 rushing attempts.

HISTORY

FIRST-TEAM AP ALL-AMERICANS

1947 All-American
RAY EVANS

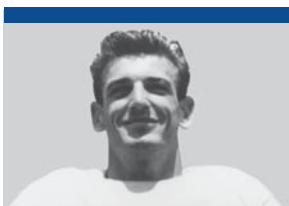

Ray Evans, KU's first All-America selection (along with Otto Schnellbacher), qualifies as one of the greatest athletes in Kansas history.

Evans is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in both passing (1,117 yards) and interceptions (10) in the same season (1942). His single-season interception mark, in fact, still remains a KU record. In addition to being an All-American in football, Evans was also a two-time selection as a Helms Foundation basketball All-American for head coach Phog Allen.

He is the only athlete in KU history to have both his football jersey number (42) and basketball jersey (15) retired. Evans was a key performer in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-1-2 record, a first-place tie in the Big Six Conference and a spot in the 1948 Orange Bowl his senior season. Evans once owned the NCAA record of consecutive passing attempts (60) without an interception. He played professionally for one season with Pittsburgh.

1947 All-American
OTTO SCHNELLBACHER

Known as the "Double Threat from Sublette," Otto Schnellbacher excelled during his days as an athlete at Kansas in both football and basketball. Schnellbacher served as a co-captain of the 1947 Jayhawk team that won a share of the conference title and earned a spot in the Orange Bowl.

He is one of just three KU athletes to serve as a captain in both football and basketball. A two-time All-Big Six selection, Schnellbacher was credited with 58 career pass receptions for 1,069 yards and both marks stood as school records for 22 years. He averaged 18.4 yards per reception. Schnellbacher was a regular in 1942 and had his career put on hold during World War II. A four-time all-conference selection in basketball, Schnellbacher played both football and basketball professionally. He played football for four seasons with the New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference and the New York Giants of the NFL. He intercepted 34 passes and was named All-Pro defensive back three times before retiring after the 1951 season.

1951 All-American
GEORGE MRKONIC

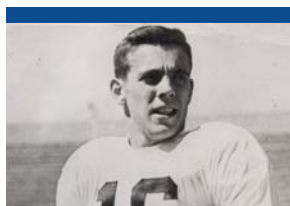

George Mrkonic teamed with Oliver Spencer to anchor one of the great lines in Kansas football history during the early 1950s.

Mrkonic, a two-time (1950-51) all-conference selection, played left guard on offense and defensive tackle. Mrkonic also handled punting duties during his KU career and led the Jayhawks in punting statistics in 1951.

During his three years in the lineup, Kansas compiled a combined 21-9 record, including an 8-2 mark in 1951 and 7-3 record in 1952. Mrkonic was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game in 1952 and had a brief stint in professional football as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He also played one season in the Canadian Football League.

1952 All-American
GIL REICH

Although he played just one season at Kansas after transferring from the United States Military Academy, Gil Reich quickly established himself as one of the most determined performers in Jayhawk history.

He was a standout as a cornerback, excelling in run support and as a punt returner. Reich earned all-conference and All-America honors for his performance as a defensive back. In addition, Reich split time as the starting quarterback with Jerry Robertson. He accounted for 428 yards in total offense and was credited with five touchdown passes. He averaged 17.2 yards on 19 punt returns and also served as the Jayhawks' punter and kicked extra points.

Reich was also a two-sport standout, playing a significant role on the Jayhawks' 1952-53 basketball team. As a starting guard, Reich helped direct the Jayhawks to the 1953 National Championship game -- a 69-68 loss to Indiana.

1952 All-American
OLIVER SPENCER

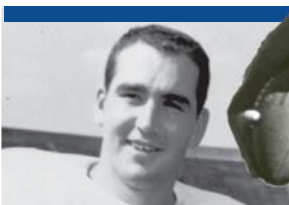

A dominating blocker and outstanding athlete, Spencer and teammate George Mrkonic were recognized as two of college football's premier linemen during the early 1950s. Spencer excelled at right offensive tackle, helping the Jayhawks to a combined 15-5 mark during his two seasons as a regular on the offensive front.

As a sophomore, Spencer was a backup at KU behind future pro football hall of famer Mike McCormack. Following his senior season, Spencer was selected to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl.

He played in the National Football League for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers from 1953-61, and served as an offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders for 19 seasons (1962-79).

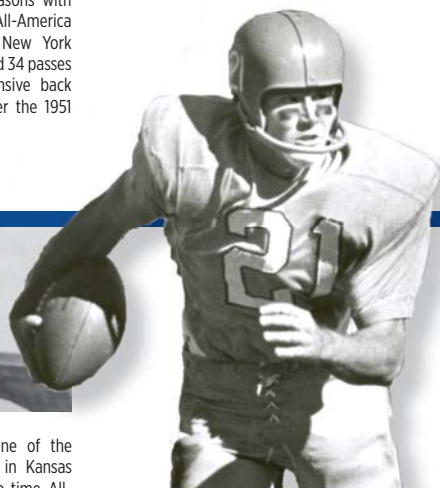

1960-61 All-American
JOHN HADL

John Hadl easily represents one of the greatest all-around performers in Kansas history. The Jayhawks' first two-time All-America selection, Hadl excelled in the Jayhawk offense as a quarterback and part-time halfback.

He was also a highly effective defensive back, return specialist and one of the nation's top punters during his three-year career. His jersey No. 21 is one of just three retired in Kansas football history. A three-time all-conference selection, Hadl ended his career with 1,281 yards passing and 1,016 yards rushing. He still holds the school record for longest punt (94 yards vs. Oklahoma in 1959, third-longest in NCAA history) and has the third-longest interception return (98 yards vs. TCU in 1959).

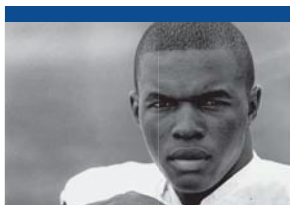

Hadl, who led the nation in punting in 1959 with a 45.6 average, was a standout on some of KU's great teams. The Jayhawks were a combined 14-5-2 his junior and senior seasons with Hadl at the controls and ranked nationally in the top 20 each season. He concluded his senior season by leading KU to a 33-7 win over Rice in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Hadl was named most valuable player in the East-West Shrine game and the College All-Star Game.

Hadl enjoyed a 16-year career in the NFL, passing for 33,513 yards. He was recognized as the NFL Man of the Year in 1971 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Following a successful career in coaching, Hadl moved into administration and currently serves as an associate athletics director at his alma mater.

1963-64 All-American
GALE SAYERS

Gale Sayers, the "Kansas Comet," established himself in his collegiate and professional career as one of the great running backs in the history of football. A two-time All-America selection for the Jayhawks, Sayers concluded his KU career with 2,675 yards rushing and 3,917 all-purpose yards. Sayers led KU in rushing, touchdowns and kickoff returns all three years he was in the lineup. He also led the team in receiving and punt returns as a junior and senior. Sayers became the first player in NCAA Division IA history to record a 99-yard run when he broke loose against Nebraska in Lincoln during the 1963 season. He also had a 96-yard kickoff return in a 15-14 upset of Oklahoma his senior season.

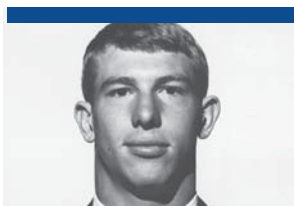

Sayers was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bears (and Kansas City Chiefs) and had an abbreviated seven-year NFL career that was cut short by a knee injury. He led the league in rushing in 1966 and 1969. He retired in 1972 with a career total of 4,956 rushing yards. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977 at age 34, the youngest person ever selected. He served as assistant athletics director at his alma mater from 1972-76.

FIRST-TEAM AP ALL-AMERICANS

1968 All-American

BOBBY DOUGLASS

Twice selected All-Big Eight Conference (1967-68), Douglass was named to both the United Press International (UPI) and Kodak All-America teams in 1968. In his senior season, Douglass directed the Pepper Rodgers-coached Jayhawks to a 9-2 record, a share of the Big Eight Conference title and a spot in the 1969 Orange Bowl. He passed for 1,316 yards and 12 touchdowns his final year as a Jayhawk. He passed for touchdowns in six consecutive games in 1968 which represented a school record. He ranks eighth all-time in career passing yardage with 2,817 yards.

His 3,832 yards in total offense qualifies as the ninth-best mark in KU history and he was responsible for 39 touchdowns during his career, a mark that ranks fifth on KU's all-time listing. Douglass was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, American Bowl and the College All-Star game in Chicago following his senior season. He earned Most Valuable Player honors in the American Bowl. Douglass played professionally in the NFL for 13 years with Chicago, San Diego, New Orleans and Green Bay.

1968 All-American

JOHN ZOOK

A three-year letterman and two-time All-Big Eight Conference selection, John Zook anchored one of the top defensive units in Kansas football history.

Zook earned All-America honors in 1968 as the defensive standout on a Kansas team that finished with a 9-2 record, shared the conference championship and faced Penn State in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks were ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll -- Zook's senior season.

He finished his career with 202 total tackles, which ranks as the fourth-best mark among defensive linemen in school history.

"He never played but full speed from snap one to snap 100. He was the most full-speed player on every snap that you could imagine," said Pepper Rodgers.

1973 All-American

DAVID JAYNES

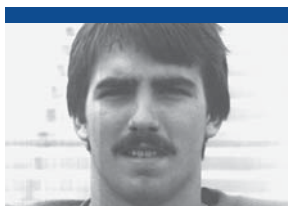

David Jaynes brought a lethal arm to the Kansas offense in the early 1970s and broke virtually every season and career passing mark in the Jayhawk record book. A highly recruited high school quarterback at nearby Bonner Springs, Jaynes concluded his career ranked No. 1 all-time in passing yardage (a mark later broken by Frank Seurer) with 5,132 yards. His 35-career passing touchdowns stood as a school record for 34 years.

Jaynes, who earned All-America honors in 1973, had his greatest game as a senior in 1973 with a school-record performance against Tennessee in Knoxville. Jaynes connected on 35-of-58 attempts for 394 yards. "I've never seen him have a better day in his life," said then-head coach Don Fambrough. Jaynes directed the Jayhawks to a 7-4-1 record his senior year, including a trip to the Liberty Bowl. Jaynes, who led KU in passing for three consecutive seasons, finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1973.

1983 All-American

BRUCE KALLMEYER

Bruce Kallmeyer is regarded as one of the most potent offensive weapons in Kansas history thanks to his talents as a placekicker. Kallmeyer concluded his four-year Jayhawk career with single-season marks of field goals made (24), attempted (29) and ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage (77.9). Kallmeyer also established new standards in the Kansas record book for most field goals in a game (five) which he recorded twice in his career, against Nebraska in 1981 and Wichita State in 1983. Kallmeyer also had four field goals in the Jayhawks' upset win over Southern California in 1983.

Kallmeyer, who had a career-long 57-yard field goal against Iowa State as a senior, ranks third all-time in scoring with 233 points. His 98 points in 1983 qualifies as the second-best single-season mark in KU history and his 21 points against Wichita State in the same season represents the most single-game points by a KU kicker in history.

2007 All-American

ANTHONY COLLINS

Big, strong, and fast, Anthony Collins became one of the nation's premier offensive linemen in his junior season, his final year at Kansas before declaring early for the NFL Draft. The 6-6, 310-pounder was named All-America First Team by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football Writer's Association of America, among others, in 2007.

The Beaumont, Texas native was also one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior linemen. Collins helped pave the way for consecutive 1,000-yard rushers in Jon Cornish and Brandon McAnderson during his last two years, while anchoring an offensive unit that was among the nation's most productive his junior year. Collins played both right and left tackle during his career. He earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors as a sophomore at right tackle and then was named an All-Big 12 First Team pick as a junior after switching to the left side. He was drafted in the fourth round by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2008.

2007 All-American

AQIB TALIB

A versatile performer, Aqib Talib capped off his Kansas career by being named a consensus All-America selection after his junior season. In that junior campaign he helped lead the Jayhawks to a 12-1 record, a regular season national ranking of second and a FedEx Orange Bowl victory. A tremendous cornerback, Talib led the country in passes defended as a sophomore with 28 and then recorded 18 more the following season.

He finished his career with 13 interceptions, second all-time at KU, and added 45 passes broken up despite leaving for the NFL after his junior season. He also recorded 66 tackles as a junior as he was the Jack Tatum Award winner, a Bronko Nagurski finalist, a Jim Thorpe semifinalist and a Walter Camp watch list selection in addition to his All-America honors in 2007. Not only did Talib excel on the defensive side of the football, he saw action as a wide receiver as well. In 2007 he caught eight passes for 182 yards and four touchdowns, giving him five touchdowns on nine career receptions. In his final game at KU he was named the MVP of the FedEx Orange Bowl. He was drafted 20th overall by Tampa Bay in the 2008 NFL Draft after his junior campaign.

GAME SUMMARY

Trailing 20-14 to Georgia Tech with the final minutes ticking away, Kansas appeared ready to upset the favored Engineers in the 14th annual Orange Bowl, only to have a lost fumble at the two-foot line dash all hopes. Georgia Tech scored first on a 24-yard pass play to take a 7-0 lead in the second quarter. Kansas answered, however, with a 65-yard drive, finished by Ray Evans' 12-yard scoring burst and the extra point by Don Fambrough.

The third quarter proved pivotal, however, as Georgia Tech scored twice to take a 20-7 lead into the final stanza. Finding it difficult to move on the ground, Tech resorted to the air. As a result, Georgia Tech's quarterback Jim Still set an Orange Bowl record for most touchdown passes and best passing percentage, a .769 mark based on 10 completions in 13 attempts.

The Jayhawks, though, were not finished. A long pass from quarterback Bill Hogan to end Bryan Sperry moved the ball to the Georgia Tech 12. Hogan then lobbed a 12-yard scoring pass to Ray Evans. Soon afterwards Dick Monroe of Kansas recovered a Georgia Tech fumble at the Tech 42. Three plays later, Hogan completed a pass to end Otto Schnellbacher, putting the ball at the 26. Evans then sliced off three yards before pitching to Schnellbacher, who was forced out at the 10. Evans bolted nine yards to the one, and it appeared Kansas was ready to upset the Engineers.

But then disaster struck. Quarterback Lynne McNutt, attempting to sneak it in for the game-tying touchdown, lost the ball and the officials ruled that Tech's Rollo Phillips recovered it. Controversy raged as to whether McNutt actually fumbled or Phillips took it away from him amidst the pileup at the goal line.

GAME SUMMARY

Sparked by a 41-yard run by quarterback John Hadl out of deep punt formation late in the first half, Kansas swept by Rice, 33-7, to claim the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl. Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Two plays later fullback Ken Coleman crashed over from the one to give the Jayhawks a 12-7 halftime lead.

The Jayhawks controlled the ball in the second half, scoring on drives of 50, 36 and 68 yards, while finishing the day with 76 offensive plays compared to only 47 for Rice. Hadl completed seven of 10 attempts for 64 yards. Coleman, voted the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Performer, finished with 107 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

The Jayhawks scored first with 5:05 remaining in the initial quarter, when Coleman went over from a yard out. It climaxed a 59-yard, nine-play drive. The extra point attempt by Bill Barnes was blocked. Rice answered that score with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter, when quarterback Randy Kerbow completed a five-yard scoring pass to flanker Johnny Burrell. The extra point was good to put the Owls on top for the one and only time. That set the stage for Hadl's heroics and the Kansas domination.

GAME SUMMARY

In the never-to-be-forgotten "Twelfth Man Game," Penn State narrowly defeated Kansas, 15-14, with a second-chance two-point conversion in the waning seconds of the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic. The Jayhawks thought they had won the game when they broke up Chuck Burkhart's conversion pass following Penn State's frantic touchdown with just 15 seconds remaining. Kansas was penalized, however, for having 12 men on the field, and the Nittany Lions received another chance — this time from only one-and-a-half yards out instead of three. On that attempt Bob Campbell's thrust at the left side of his line produced the winning margin.

Kansas, playing in its third bowl game, scored in the opening quarter when Mike Reeves capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive by ramming over from the two. Pat Hutchens set the drive in motion by intercepting a Burkhart pass.

The Jayhawks took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter, when Donnie Shanklin returned a punt 46 yards to the seven to set up a touchdown by John Riggins. The Jayhawks nursed the lead for nearly 12 minutes, once missing a first down by inches at the Penn State five while driving for what would have been a wrap-up touchdown. The game still appeared to be under control when Kansas kicked to the Nittany Lions at the 50 with 1:16 remaining. But on the next play Burkhart hit Campbell with a 47-yard pass that KU defender Billy Hunt lost in the lights. It took three plays to score from the three, but Burkhart finally got across on a bootleg play around left end to set the stage for the hectic finish.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in a bowl game for the fourth time in its history, Kansas was upset by North Carolina State, 31-18, in the 15th annual Liberty Bowl. The Jayhawks fell after a controversial decision by an official in the third quarter, which was followed by three unanswered N.C. State touchdowns.

The play in question came early in the third quarter with the score tied, 10-10. N.C. State punted to KU's Bruce Adams at the 19. In heavy traffic Adams called for a fair catch, but fell to the ground as the ball glanced off him. N.C. State's Ralph Stringer fell on the ball and the Wolfpack scored two plays later. Adams argued with officials that he was tripped on the fair catch, but the officials refused to change their ruling.

The Wolfpack scored twice more before the Jayhawks' offense responded with a late fourth quarter scoring drive of its own.

David Jaynes, KU's All-American quarterback playing his last game for the Jayhawks, finished the game with 24 completions in 38 attempts for 218 yards. All of those figures represented Liberty Bowl records, and for his efforts Jaynes was named the game's Outstanding Offensive Performer.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its fifth bowl game ever and second in three years, Kansas dropped a 33-19 decision to Pittsburgh in the 41st annual Sun Bowl. Behind three 100-plus yard rushing performances by All-American halfback Tony Dorsett (142), fullback Elliott Walker (123) and quarterback Robert Haygood (101), the Panthers built a 19-0 halftime lead and made that lead hold up in the second half to claim the triumph.

The Jayhawks did score first in the second half, giving some hope of a comeback. Halfback Laverne Smith, who finished the day with 118 yards rushing, dazzled the Panther defense with a 55-yard burst up the middle with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. That made it 19-7, but with 12:49 remaining in the game Walker scored again for Pittsburgh, this time from two yards out, to erase all hopes of a KU comeback.

Smith later added a 17-yard touchdown run, which was followed by a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Scott McMichael to halfback Skip Sharp to close out the Kansas scoring. Nearly 4,000 KU faithful made the trip to El Paso to help comprise the record turnout of 30,272.

GAME SUMMARY

It will be remembered by Jayhawk fans as the 12-second game. Playing in its first postseason game in six years, Kansas players, coaches and fans watched as a nightmare unfolded before their eyes. KU's Darren Green took the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards before colliding with a teammate. The result was a turnover and Mississippi State's ball on the KU 17. On the ensuing play, MSU quarterback John Bond rolled right on an option play, turned up field and went unscathed into the end zone for the first and last TD of the day. A mere dozen ticks of the clock had gone by and already KU was trailing, 7-0.

Following the quick score the Jayhawk defense stiffened, however, allowing just a field goal for the remainder of the game.

The offense was a different story. The Jayhawks' only real scoring threat was nullified by a strange penalty. With a little under five minutes left in the game, KU's Bucky Scribner punted from deep in KU territory; the Bulldogs' Cookie Jackson fumbled and Kansas recovered on the MSU 22. However, a flag had been thrown; the Jayhawks were called for clipping. Rather than moving the ball back 15 yards to the Bulldog 37, the officials decided the clip had occurred during the punt, and assessed the penalty from the line of scrimmage. Kansas had to punt again from its own 11.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its first bowl game in 11 years, Kansas surrendered a kickoff return touchdown to Brigham Young on the first play of the game. Just two plays later, KU answered right back as receiver Matt Gay caught a lateral from quarterback Chip Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass.

KU defensive lineman Chris Maumalanga tackled BYU's Jamal Willis for a safety and a 9-7 lead. The Kansas defensive line had a strong day as senior Dana Stubblefield led the Jayhawks with three sacks, three hurries and one tackle for loss. For his efforts, Stubblefield was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Willis soon gained revenge with a 29-yard touchdown romp with 10:16 left to play in the half. Following his score, BYU led, 14-9, but Jayhawk kicker Dan Eichloff hammered a 41-yard field goal that capped the first-half scoring at 14-12.

BYU carried a 20-12 lead into the final quarter. Hilleary then scored on a one-yard run and capped it with a two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt. Hilleary then led the Jayhawks on a drive that lasted nearly seven minutes and resulted in Eichloff's 48-yard field goal, giving Kansas the lead.

BYU mounted a drive late in the game, but senior safety Charley Bowen secured the Jayhawks' first bowl win in 31 years by picking off Young's pass at the Kansas 29-yard line with 2:11 to play.

GAME SUMMARY

Preparing for its second bowl game in four seasons and its eighth in school history, the Jayhawks set several bowl records in running over the favored UCLA Bruins to win their second-straight postseason game.

Kansas struck first and often in taking a 17-0 lead into halftime. Senior quarterback Mark Williams capped an 11-play, 72-yard drive with a nine-yard pass to tight end Jim Moore for the touchdown. On its first drive of the second quarter junior running back June Henley outran the Bruin defenders for a touchdown. Henley carried the ball 13 times for 107 yards on the afternoon. Jeff McCord booted a 27-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Jayhawks a 17-0 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter KU's Ashaundai Smith returned a punt 43 yards and five plays later Williams found Andre Carter open in the left corner of the end zone for a score. Carter's first career TD gave Kansas a 37-7 lead late in the third quarter.

Williams finished the day 18-for-27 passing for 288 yards and three touchdowns. He also had 11 carries for 48 yards, including a fourth-quarter touchdown run. Following the game he was named Kansas' Most Valuable Player of the game. When the final gun sounded, the Jayhawks had set a bowl record for most points scored by a team with their 51-30 victory.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas, playing in its first bowl game since 1995, fell to the North Carolina State Wolfpack, 56-26, in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

N.C. State opened the scoring with a three-play, 64-yard drive which took just 1:02, capped by a 45-yard touchdown pass from Tangerine Bowl MVP Philip Rivers to Richard Washington.

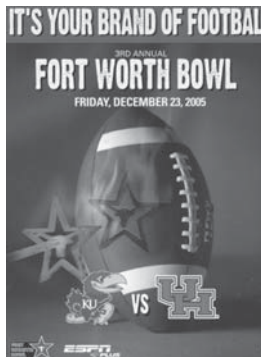

The Jayhawks answered with 10:41 left in the first quarter, as senior quarterback Bill Whittemore found freshman wide receiver Charles Gordon in the end zone on a 23-yard pass play.

KU scored again with 4:01 remaining in the half, capping off a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal by Jerod Brooks to make the score 21-10. But NCSU closed out the first-half scoring with a three-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to McLendon to make the score 28-10 at the break.

The Jayhawks opened the scoring in the second half, marching down the field on a nine-play, 79-yard drive that culminated with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Whittemore to sophomore running back Clark Green. N.C. State answered right back with two straight scores to take a 42-17 lead.

A nine-yard Whittemore rush for a score made the score 42-26 with 14:18 left in the game. But that's as close as KU would get. Brandon Rideau led the Jayhawk receivers with a KU-bowl record nine catches for 109 yards.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murph put Kansas on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown.

Houston scored its first points of the game in the second quarter when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas made it 14-3 on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard touchdown shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish.

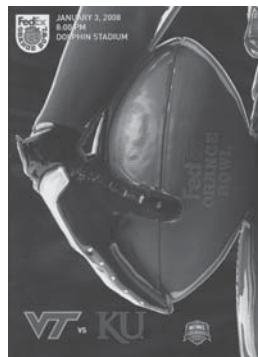

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU's 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day making it 21-10 in favor of the Jayhawks.

On KU's next possession, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to cap an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The touchdown gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third quarter.

KU pulled away scoring twice following interceptions by Charlton Keith and Baines.

Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards and was named KU's 2005 Fort Worth Bowl Most Valuable Player.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its first BCS game, No. 8 Kansas earned a 24-21 victory over No. 3 Virginia Tech in the 2008 Orange Bowl championship. Sophomore QB Todd Reesing threw a touchdown pass and ran for another, while Orange Bowl MVP Aqib Talib returned an interception 60 yards for a TD to lead KU.

The Jayhawk defense and special teams were the story of the game. The Jayhawks matched a KU bowl game record with three INTs, while five different Jayhawks collected quarterback sacks. Of the three interceptions, none was bigger than Talib's first-quarter pick that gave Kansas a 7-0 advantage.

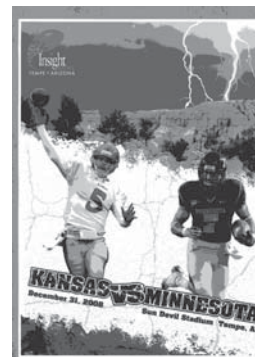

With 12 minutes remaining in the first half, senior place kicker Scott Webb stretched KU's lead to 10-0 with a 32-yard field goal, capitalizing on a Chris Harris interception.

KU increased its lead to 17-0 when Reesing led the Jayhawks on a 10-play, 59-yard drive that he culminated with a 13-yard strike to Marcus Henry. Virginia Tech answered that touchdown with a one-yard plunge by Brandon Ore with 1:24 to go in the half.

The Hokies cut the lead to 17-14 on an 86-yard punt return by Justin Harper early in the second half. Tech threatened again in the third quarter, but KU held onto its lead when junior Joe Mortensen blocked a 25-yard field goal attempt with 6:41 to go in the quarter.

Following a Justin Thornton pick-off deep in Tech territory, Reesing stretched the KU lead to 24-14 with a two-yard bootleg run.

But Virginia Tech was not done. With 5:51 to go, the Hokies held Kansas on a fourth-down try from the Tech 23. They then marched the ball 77 yards on 14 plays, drawing to within three with three minutes remaining. The Hokies tried an onside kick, but KU's Raimond Pendleton recovered the ball. From there, the Jayhawks ran out the clock.

GAME SUMMARY

Todd Reesing completed 27-of-35 passes for 313 yards and four touchdowns, while Dezmon Briscoe set Insight Bowl records for receptions (14) and TD catches (three), to lead the Jayhawks to a 42-21 victory over Minnesota in the 20th Insight Bowl. The win gave the Jayhawks their third-straight bowl.

On defense KU's trio of senior linebackers shined. Mike Rivera matched a career high with 14 tackles, while Joe Mortensen also tied his career best with 13 stops. James Holt added eight tackles, with four for loss, including three sacks.

Briscoe was named the game's offensive MVP, while Holt was tabbed the game's top defender.

Kansas struck first, scoring on a 60-yard pass play from Reesing to Briscoe on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Minnesota responded on its first possession, however, converting on a 75-yard pass on their opening play to set up a quick score.

Trailing 14-7, in the first quarter, Kansas scored the game's next 28 points to take a 35-14 lead in the third period.

The Jayhawks scored on four of their first five possessions while shutting Minnesota down after the Gophers scored the first two times they had the ball. Reesing was nearly flawless in the first half, throwing four touchdown passes and at one point completing a school-record 14 straight passes. He finished the first 30 minutes hitting 19-of-23 passes for 221 yards and the four scores.

KU scored in the third quarter on a 32-yard pass from Meier to Briscoe and then closed out the game's scoring with a two-yard rushing TD from Jake Sharp.

This listing of all-time lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Included are names in some instances first name and not actual name on roster -- along with position and years lettered of the more than 2,000 letterwinners who have played at the University of Kansas. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to the KU Communications Office.

CAPSULE HISTORY

1890 SHERMAN SCORES FIRST KU TOUCHDOWN

Kansas played its first official football game, losing to Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., 22-9. Right halfback A.F. Sherman scored KU's first touchdown on a punt return. An account of the game in the Weekly University Courier described Sherman's TD: "Hudson punted the ball down the field. Sherman managed to get the ball and made a phenomenal run for the first Kansas score ever made in football."

1912 KU DEFEATS MU IN FIRST HOMECOMING

Playing its first Homecoming game before a crowd of 9,000 fans at McCook Field, KU downed rival Missouri, 12-3. Jayhawk coach Arthur Mosse used a new offensive alignment, known as the "Minnesota Shift" to confuse the Tigers that afternoon.

1931 KU PLAYS HASKELL IN FIRST HOME NIGHT GAME

On a Friday night, Oct. 2, Kansas hosted the Haskell Indians in the first-ever home night game in Jayhawk football history. The concept for a night game came from KU athletics director Phog Allen, who was able to transport portable lights that were borrowed from Haskell Stadium (also in Lawrence) and put them in place at Memorial Stadium. In front of 11,000 fans, Haskell surprised KU with a 6-0 victory.

1899 KANSAS HAS FIRST PERFECT SEASON

In his only season as head coach at Kansas, Fielding H. Yost led the Jayhawks to a 10-0 record, which represents one of just two perfect seasons in the 127 years of football competition. KU outscored its opponents 280-37 and averaged 28 points per game. Yost, who later gained fame as head coach at Michigan, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

1920 PHOG ALLEN BUILDS A FOOTBALL STADIUM

Legendary KU basketball coach Phog Allen, in his only season as head football coach, rallied his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. Leading the team were senior quarterback Dutch Lonborg and halfback John Bunn, who were later inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame. Monday, students and faculty gathered to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 was pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium to replace McCook Field.

1947 EVANS & SCHNELLBACHER: FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Led by KU's first two All-America selections - halfback Ray Evans and end Otto Schnellbacher - the Jayhawks finished the season with an 8-1-2 record, tied for first in the conference and capped the season by playing Georgia Tech in the 1948 Orange Bowl. It marked KU's first appearance in a postseason bowl game. Among the victories that season for head coach George Sauer was an 86-6 win against South Dakota State, which represents the most points a KU team has ever scored in a single game. KU finished the year ranked 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

1908 FIRST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Jayhawks finished with a 9-0 record, outscoring their opponents 131-20, and claimed the school's first conference championship by finishing with a 4-0 record in the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference.

1921 JAYHAWKS OPEN PLAY IN MEMORIAL STADIUM

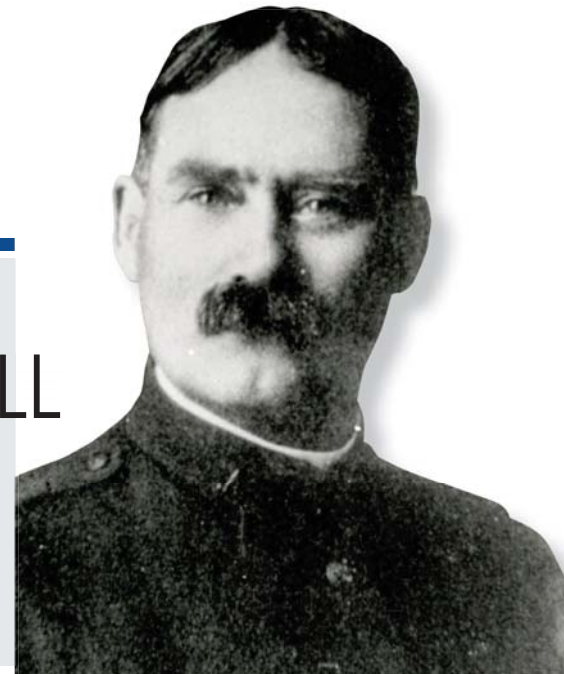

In the first game in Memorial Stadium, the Jayhawks defeated Kansas State, 21-7, in front of 5,160 fans. When the stadium opened, the east and west side stands were completed with a capacity of 22,000. The final game of the 1921 season saw KU down Missouri, 15-9, before 15,480 fans.

DR. JAMES NAISMITH

& THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

The man credited with inventing the game of basketball - Dr. James Naismith (right) - also had a significant impact on the development of football. Naismith took a football and cut it lengthwise and placed it over his head to protect his ears as a football player at Springfield College. Thus, the first football helmet was invented.

Naismith was hired by the University of Kansas in 1898 as director of physical education on the recommendation of legendary football coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He retired from active teaching in 1937 after 39 years as a member of the KU faculty.

CAPSULE HISTORY

1960 JAYHAWKS UPSET A NO. 1-RANKED TEAM

The Jayhawks faced one of the most challenging schedules in school history, facing three teams (Syracuse, Iowa and Missouri) ranked No. 1 in the nation. KU lost early in the season to Syracuse (14-7) and Iowa (21-7), but the elite backfield combination of John Hadl, Curtis McClinton, Doyle Schick and Bert Coan helped lead the Jayhawks to a 23-7 upset win versus then No. 1-ranked Missouri. The win was later forfeited when it was determined that Coan had received a free plane ride to the College Football All-Star Game in Chicago from a KU alumn.

1963 SAYERS SCAMPERS FOR NCAA RECORD

Hall of Fame halfback Gale Sayers put his name in the college football record book by breaking loose on a 99-yard run against Nebraska in Lincoln, the longest run from scrimmage at that time in NCAA history. Only four other backs (including KU's Eric Vann) have accomplished a run of that length in the history of college football.

1967 A COACHING STAFF OF EXCELLENCE

After finishing with a 5-5 record in his first season as head coach in 1967, Pepper Rodgers assembled one of the greatest coaching staffs in KU history to begin the 1968 season. The staff included several assistants who would later achieve fame as head coaches, including John Cooper (Tulsa, Arizona State and Ohio State), Dick Tomey (Arizona), Terry Donahue (UCLA), the late Dave McLain (Wisconsin) and Don Fambrough (Kansas). The staff also included Doug Weaver (former athletics director at Georgia Tech and Michigan State) and Larry Travis (former athletics director at Kansas State and Western Carolina).

1968 ROGERS TAKES KU TO ORANGE BOWL

Under the guidance of coach Pepper Rodgers, KU came within five points of an undefeated season and a victory in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks tied for first in the Big Eight and finished 9-2 with losses to Oklahoma (27-23) during the regular season and Penn State (15-14) in the Orange Bowl. Among the standouts were quarterback Bobby Douglass and fullback John Riggins.

1973 A CARDIAC SEASON

The Jayhawks experienced a cardiac season with six games decided by two points or less -- the most games decided by that margin in NCAA history. KU finished the year with a 7-4-1 record, winning three of those close encounters, and played North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl.

ED HARVEY & HOMER FLOYD

BREAKING BARRIERS

ED HARVEY became the first African-American to play football at Kansas, earning his "K" letter as a member of the 1893 Jayhawk team. Harvey's parents were born into slavery and later escaped Quantrill's Raid in Lawrence. They became share croppers and were able to put their three sons through college.

It was 62 years later when HOMER FLOYD, a standout at Massillon (Ohio) High School, broke the modern-day color barrier to play football at KU. Floyd enrolled at Kansas at the urging of his high school coach, Chuck Mather, who served as the Jayhawk head coach from 1954-57.

Floyd, a team captain in 1958, started all 30 games of his career (1955-58) on offense and defense. He led the Jayhawks in rushing yardage all three years and earned all-conference honors as a senior. Floyd later played for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and then served as executive director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

ED HARVEY

HOMER FLOYD

1975 CROMWELL GUIDES KU TO UPSET OVER OU

Kansas defeated No. 2 Oklahoma in Norman, 23-3, to end the Sooners' 28-game winning streak and 37-game unbeaten string. Earlier in the season, quarterback Nolan Cromwell set a new NCAA record for rushing yards by quarterbacks with 294 yards on 28 carries in a 20-0 win against Oregon State.

1997 KANSAS NABS 500TH VICTORY

Terry Allen was on the sidelines for his second conference victory as head coach at KU and the school's 500th win in school history as the Jayhawks downed Oklahoma, 20-17.

2005 KU REACHES SECOND BOWL GAME IN THREE YEARS

Mark Mangino became the first head coach in KU history to lead his team to two bowl games in a three-year span as the team faced Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl. KU clobbered the Cougars, 42-13. Quarterback Jason Swanson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

1991 TUXEDO TONY RUSHES FOR 396 YARDS

Running back "Tuxedo" Tony Sands set an NCAA single-game record by rushing for 396 yards on 58 carries in a 53-29 win against Missouri in Lawrence. Sands was later named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference.

1992 FIRST BOWL WIN IN 31 YEARS

Head coach Glen Mason guided KU to its first bowl win in 31 years as the Jayhawks defeated Brigham Young, 23-10, in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. Led by defensive linemen Dana Stubblefield and Gilbert Brown, along with quarterback Chip Hilleary, KU finished the season with an 8-4 record and placed third in the Big Eight Conference.

1995 SURPRISE TEAM OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Picked to finish fifth in the Big Eight preseason polls, the Jayhawks were one of the surprise teams of college football with a 10-2 season and a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Along the way, KU defeated two ranked teams (Colorado and Oklahoma) on the road. The season ended with a twist of drama as head coach Glen Mason announced just prior to the bowl game that he was leaving after the UCLA encounter to become head coach at Georgia. Mason later changed his mind and stayed as head coach, informing his team on the morning of the Aloha Bowl. KU cruised to a 51-30 victory.

2007 JAYHAWKS CLAIM BCS BOWL VICTORY

Consensus National Coach of the Year Mark Mangino guided the Jayhawks to arguably the greatest season in Kansas football history as the Jayhawks won a BCS Bowl (FedEx Orange Bowl), finished the year ranked seventh in the country for the second-highest ranking in school history, and posted a 12-1 record. Three Jayhawks-Aqib Talib, Anthony Collins and James McClinton-earned All-America honors as KU was the only team in the nation to rank in the top five in both scoring offense and scoring defense. The Jayhawks became the talk of the nation after running up 11- straight victories before suffering their first loss in a matchup with Missouri. KU entered that regular-season finale ranked second in the country while the Tigers were listed third. Despite the loss, the Jayhawks were selected to play in a BCS game and finished the season with a victory against No. 5 Virginia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

2008 JAYHAWKS REACH CONSECUTIVE BOWL GAMES FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

For the first time in school history Kansas played in bowl games in consecutive years as the 2008 Jayhawks won the 2008 Insight Bowl a season after claiming the 2008 Orange Bowl. KU's 20 combined wins in 2007 and 2008 were the most in school history as well.

UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR

DOUGLAS A. GIROD

POSITION	Chancellor
ALMA MATER	UC Davis, '81
EXPERIENCE	Second Year

Douglas A. Girod, M.D., became the 18th chancellor of the University of Kansas on July 1, 2017, after serving for four years as executive vice chancellor of the University of Kansas Medical Center. There he oversaw the educational, research, patient care and community engagement missions of the University of Kansas schools of Medicine, Nursing and Health Professions, with their total annual enrollment of more than 3,300 students; a workforce of more than 2,100 faculty and more than 4,000 staff; and research funding of nearly $100 million.

In addition to serving as executive vice chancellor, Dr. Girod also served as interim executive dean of the KU School of Medicine until March 24, 2014. Prior to those roles, he served as senior associate dean for clinical affairs and chair of the Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery. A surgeon, Dr. Girod joined the University of Kansas Medical Center faculty in 1994 and quickly rose through the academic ranks, becoming chair of the otolaryngology department in 2002. He was named Russell E. Bridwell Endowed Chair in 2008.

Dr. Girod earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry from the University of California at Davis and his medical degree from the University of California at San Francisco. He completed his residency and an NIH research fellowship at the University of Washington in Seattle.

Prior to joining the University of Kansas Medical Center, Dr. Girod served as vice chairman and research director in the Department of Otolaryngology at the Naval Medical Center in Oakland, California. He served in the United States Navy Reserve from 1982, rising to the rank of lieutenant commander and later earning the Meritorious Service Medal.

JAYHAWK IMG SPORTS NETWORK

Jayhawk IMG Sports Marketing
123 West 8th Street, Suite 303
Lawrence, KS 66044

Office (785) 312-7555

University of Kansas football games can be heard exclusively on the Jayhawk IMG Sports Network, which includes 31 stations in 33 markets. Brian Hanni and David Lawrence handle the play-by-play and analysis. Josh Klingler reports from the sidelines and handles the Crimson and Blue Show, which runs prior to each KU game, while also providing a postgame interview with head coach David Beaty and Jayhawk players. The Jayhawk IMG Sports Network is operated by Jayhawk IMG Sports Marketing, a division of IMG College with offices in Lawrence. Marc Tuttle serves as the general manager of Jayhawk IMG Sports Marketing.

Hanni was named the play-by-play voice of Kansas Jayhawk football and men's basketball on the Jayhawk IMG Radio Network on June 21, 2016, and is now entering his third season working with KU. Hanni also hosts "Hawk Talk," the weekly radio shows of Beaty and men's basketball coach Bill Self, and performs other duties as assigned by Kansas Athletics.

A Topeka, Kansas native, Hanni graduated from the University of Kansas in 2002 with a broadcast management degree with an emphasis on sports broadcasting and media sales. Hanni created the daily show "Rock Chalk Sports Talk" on KLWN Radio in Lawrence in the summer of 2002 and hosted it until 2012. The Jayhawk Radio Network aired the show for several years. Hanni did radio broadcasts of KU baseball games for over a decade, and spent eight years on the radio broadcast team for KU women's basketball. He also served occasionally on KU men's basketball and football broadcasts for eight years.

Hanni left Lawrence in 2012 to become the voice of Texas Tech men's basketball and baseball on the Texas Tech Sports Radio Network. He also did a weekday radio show, "The Bottom Line."

Hanni has won over 25 awards from the Kansas Association of Broadcasters. In 2015 he was inducted into the Topeka West High School Sports Hall of Fame for his efforts in sportscasting.

Hanni is well-known in the Lawrence community, not only for his broadcasting talent but also for his charity work. In 2009 he founded (and still organizes) an annual celebrity basketball game, "The Rock Chalk Roundball Classic," which raises money for local families fighting cancer. He is an active participant in other youth-related organizations within the community as well.

Lawrence is in his 32nd season with the Jayhawk IMG Sports Network and his 12th full season inside the broadcast booth. He has hosted the Crimson and Blue Show and performed sideline reporting duties on the Network for 22 years. A four-year letterwinner while playing tight end and offensive guard at KU, Lawrence was a team captain, offensive player of the year and an All-Big Eight selection in 1981. He served as a graduate assistant under Kansas coaches Don Fambrough and Mike Gottfried. Lawrence retired from teaching at Lawrence Free State High School and previously at South Junior High School, where he also was head football coach for 17 years. He currently is in charge of the freshman football program at Free State, does some local sports talk radio and dotes on his three granddaughters.

Lawrence was an analyst on the KU football radio broadcasts in 1982 and was the TV analyst for KU football telecasts on Sunflower Broadband Channel 6 from 1988 to 1994.

Klingler serves as the team's sideline reporter and also hosts the pregame Crimson and Blue Show. He has been a part of the Jayhawk IMG Network since 2005 covering football, men's and women's basketball. He also is the morning drive co-host on 610 Sports Radio KCSP in Kansas City.

In his rookie year for the Jayhawk IMG Sports Network, veteran broadcaster Steve Kincaid will take on the producer/engineer duties for Kansas football, men's basketball, and select Hawk Talks. Kincaid replaces Hall of Fame producer/engineer Bob Newton, who, after 34 years on the Network, announced his retirement at the conclusion of the 2017-18 season. Kincaid is a 1988 KU graduate and has been involved in broadcasting for 36 years as an announcer or engineer. Kincaid also handles engineering duties for Kansas Public Radio and the Audio-Reader Network at KU and serves on the State Emergency Communications Committee for Kansas.

MEDIA INFORMATION

KANSAS ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Monday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on KUAthletics.com. The release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service each Monday.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE--MEDIA LUNCHEON

Kansas head football coach David Beaty will conduct a weekly press conference each Tuesday during the season. A media luncheon is held at 12 p.m., in the Gridiron Room located in the Anderson Family Football Complex south of Kivisto Field at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium. The weekly press conferences follow in the George R. Mrkonic Auditorium at 1 p.m. Requested players will be made available each week following the Beaty press conference (approximately 1:30 p.m.).

Beaty will also be available on the weekly Big 12 Teleconference on Mondays at 10 a.m. Central. Information on how to take part in the teleconference is available through the Big 12 Conference office.

INTERVIEWS

Contact the communications office for all player or coach interview requests.

All interviews with players during the season will take place at 1:30 p.m., on Tuesdays in the Gridiron Room at the Anderson Family Football Complex. To request players, media should contact Katy Lonergan, Director of Football Communications, by noon each Monday at katyl@ku.edu or (785) 864-7314.

Out-of-town media wishing to interview Kansas players should also contact the communications office with their requests by noon the day prior to the interview.

Home and cell phone numbers for players will not be provided and players have been instructed not to accept calls from media without prior notice from the communications office. Please do not contact a player or coach without scheduling the interview through the communications office.

COVERING HOME GAMES

CREDENTIALS

All credential requests can be made online. Contact the communications office for information on how to access the page. Credentials requested after Monday of the game week will not be mailed. Instead, they will be available for pickup at a location agreeable to both parties. The Kivisto Field at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium Media Will Call distribution location is in the ticket office at the base of the elevator, below the pressbox, on the west side of the stadium.

GETTING TO KIVISTO FIELD AT DAVID BOOTH KANSAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

From Kansas City (Kansas City International Airport), take I-29 North to I-435 South toward Topeka. Merge onto I-70 West to Topeka. Use exit 202 (west exit) in Lawrence and drive south to Ninth street. Take a left (east) on Ninth street to Mississippi Street and turn right (south).

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Mississippi Street Parking Garage just south of the Kansas Union on the southeast side of David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium. The garage is approximately two blocks away from the stadium.

PRESSBOX

The Kivisto Field at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium pressbox is located on the west side of the stadium. Entrance is at the base of the elevator located just off of Maine Street. There is also a field-level media entrance at Gate 35. Level eight is reserved for the print media, home and visiting radio, home and visiting booths for coaches and athletics directors, along with game and scoreboard operations. Level nine serves as the photo deck and the location for television booths.

PRESSBOX SERVICES

Packets with pregame information will be distributed in advance of kickoff on the day of the game. Quarter, halftime, and final statistics, game books, coaches and player quote sheets are all regular services on game day. Stat monitors with live, updated statistics are available throughout the print media level and in booths for electronic media. In addition, television monitors are also part of the fixtures in both home and visiting radio booths.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Complimentary access to wireless internet is available at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium and information about how to access it will be available in the pressbox.

TELEPHONES

Writers wanting phone lines at their seat locations should contact the KU Telecommunications Office at (785) 864-9300 regarding installation. For specific line location, please list Katy Lonergan as the contact. Allow at least two weeks notice prior to the game.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

As a fan of KU Athletics, it is important to become familiar with NCAA, Big 12 and Kansas Athletics Compliance rules. Please review the following information as a brief guide to NCAA compliance and feel free to contact our office at any time. We appreciate your support and cooperation. Rock Chalk Jayhawk!

BOOSTER DEFINED

A booster is any individual, independent agency, corporate entity (e.g., apparel or equipment manufacturer), or other organization that is known to:

- Hold, or have ever held, season tickets for any sport with Kansas Athletics;
- Have participated in, or to be a member of, an agency or organization promoting any Kansas Athletics program (e.g., University of Kansas Alumni Association, K Club, sport booster groups, etc.);
- Have made financial contributions to the athletics department or to an athletics booster organization of that institution (e.g. Hardwood Club or any sport-specific booster groups);
- Be assisting, or to have assisted in, providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families, which would trigger booster status under NCAA rules. These benefits include, but are not limited to, financial assistance, use of a car, use of a cell phone, etc.;
- Provide allowable benefits (e.g., summer jobs) to enrolled student-athletes; or
- Promote Kansas Athletics in any way.

*This list is not exhaustive. Please contact the Kansas Athletics Compliance Office if you have any questions about your possible status as a booster. Once an individual or entity is deemed to be a booster it carries that status forever.

EXTRA BENEFITS

An extra benefit is any special gift or arrangement provided to a student-athlete, or student-athlete's friends or family members which is not available to the general KU student body or the general public. Should a prospective student-athlete or current student-athlete receive an extra benefit, they will be ineligible for competition.

IMPERMISSIBLE EXTRA BENEFITS EXAMPLES (THIS IS NOT AN EXHAUSTIVE LIST):

For Prospective and Current Student-Athletes:

- Cash or loans or the co-signing of loans
- Assistance with paying bills, rent or mortgages
- Use of an automobile or any other transportation
- Entertainment of admission to an event (e.g. movies, athletic events, banquets, clubs, special events/parties, concerts, etc.)
- Gifts of any kind, including those on special occasions such as birthdays, religious holidays, graduation, etc.
- Free or reduced-cost services, rentals, or purchases of any type (e.g. meals, drinks, clothing, laundry, haircuts, legal fees, tattoos, golf, car services, etc.)
- Free or reduced-cost housing for any length of time
- Use of your telephone or credit card
- Providing a meal or paying for a meal at a public location
- Academic assistance of any kind (e.g., tutoring, editing papers/projects, assistance in completing class work, use of computer, etc.)

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES

A prospective student-athlete is anyone who has entered the ninth grade. Impermissible activities with a prospective student-athlete include:

- Having any type of recruiting communication including conversations, social media messages and letters.
- Conducting any evaluation of their ability on behalf of the Kansas coaching staff or providing evaluations to the Kansas coaching staffs.
- Contacting the prospective student-athlete. Getting involved in recruiting activities without consent from the Compliance Office could jeopardize the eligibility of the prospective student-athlete.

RECRUITING INDUCEMENT

A recruiting inducement under NCAA rules is any special gift or arrangement provided to a prospective student-athlete that is not available to the general population. The arrangement of such a benefit would be considered an improper inducement to encourage the eventual enrollment of a prospective student-athlete.

Kansas Athletics is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans and is always available to answer any questions regarding permissible recruiting activities.

EMPLOYMENT OF A STUDENT-ATHLETE

Employment of a student-athlete is permissible, provided all six of the following conditions are met:

1. Student-athlete is only paid for the work actually performed;
2. Student-athlete is paid at the rate commensurate with the going rate in that locale for similar services;
3. Student-athlete may not be compensated in any manner for any value or utility that he or she may have for an employer because of any publicity, reputation, fame, or personal following that he/she may have because of his or her athletics ability;
4. Student-athletes must register all jobs during the academic year and the summer by completing the Student-Athlete Employment Form and returning it to the Athletics Compliance Office prior to beginning work;
5. Proof of earnings is required and all student-athletes must submit a pay stub at the end of their employment. All paperwork must be submitted along with a verification of earnings; and
6. Employers MUST confirm their employment of Kansas Athletics student-athletes prior to the student-athletes' employment.

PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES – STUDENT-ATHLETES

- Student-athletes are not eligible for participation in intercollegiate athletics if he/she accepts compensation, or permits the use of his/her name or pictures to promote a commercial enterprise.
- A student-athlete's name or picture may not be used to advertise, recommend, or promote directly the sale or use of a commercial product or service of any kind.
- If a student-athlete's name or picture appears on commercial items (t-shirts, playing cards, posters, photographs, etc.) or is used to promote a commercial product without the student-athlete's knowledge or permission, the student-athlete and the institution are required to take steps to stop such an activity in order to maintain the student-athlete's eligibility.

GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes and athletic department staff members from participating in any sports gambling activity or providing information concerning competitions to individuals involved in organized gambling activities. Additionally, it is a violation of federal law for boosters, student-athletes, or staff members to tamper with the outcome of a collegiate contest. Please do not ask any student-athletes or staff members for information regarding student-athlete performance/injuries.

NCAA RULES

Top 10 Things Fans & Friends of Kansas Athletics Should Know About NCAA Rules:

1. You should always report any suspected or known violations to the Compliance Office immediately.
2. The NCAA holds Kansas Athletics accountable for the actions of its fans and supporters. If you are involved with NCAA violations (known or unknown), Kansas may have to forfeit games, entire seasons, scholarships, recruiting opportunities, or may be prohibited from participating in the postseason.
3. You may send information about prospects to Kansas Athletics coaching staff members.
4. You may continue established relationships with friends and neighbors whose children are prospects or student-athletes. The relationship must pre-date high school and is not based on his/her status as an athlete (this must be registered in advance with the Compliance Office).
5. You may not be involved in recruiting prospective student-athletes on behalf of Kansas Athletics. A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade.
6. You may not become involved in arranging for a prospect, a Kansas student-athlete, or a Kansas student-athlete's friends or family to receive money or financial assistance of any kind.
7. You may not provide transportation to a prospect, student-athlete or their friends and family.
8. You cannot spend funds to entertain prospects, student-athletes or their friends and family or provide them with any other extra benefit.
9. You may not use a photo or name of a student-athlete for commercial purposes or sell student-athlete memorabilia.
10. Always ask before you act!
